There is a lot of talk in the industry about the need to move the business of the Internet away from the desktop platform. I agree because, in my view, the Internet is not the best way to deliver information, either in the use of search engines. Even in the desktop, taking the user's information sources to the user is the better way. I think the Internet is the best way to deliver information and, in fact, the best way to deliver information about the information is itself.
