Electronic Documents Discovery Disclosure Principles Strategies:

Electronic Documents - Discovery and Disclosure Karl Obayi, 2013-08-29 90% of all Business communications pass through computers and other digital devices like mobile phones Traditional documentary evidence has largely given way to the discovery and disclosure of electronic documents To be effective in the use of electronic evidence the lawyer does not have to become a computer nerd with all the bells and whistle of a technology genius However for the lawyer to be effective in our contemporary times the age of computers and technology he must have the minimum set of skills to put him in a position to properly access analyse and meaningfully participate in the use of electronic documents and computer evidence This book provides helpful practical hints and strategies that will assist the legal professional The book addresses the technical and legal nuances required for the successful deployment of electronic documents before and during litigation

Electronic Disclosure in International Arbitration David J. Howell, 2008 International arbitration faces the challenge of the exponential increase in the volume of electronically stored information While there has been a convergence in the accepted scope of disclosure in international arbitration chiefly reflected in the IBA Rules on Evidence there is widespread concern about the potential burdens of disclosure of electronic documents with regard to the litigation experience Arbitrators are rapidly having to come to terms with these issues in an arbitration context in order to meet the needs and expectations of the parties A number of arbitration institutions are currently considering rule changes or protocols to address the disclosure of electronic documents This publication analyses the procedural practical and technical issues and addresses the appropriate approach to electronic disclosure in international arbitration including those lessons and principles that can usefully be adapted from the litigation experience Contributors include leading arbitrators arbitration counsel in house counsel and IT experts including leading experts in the field of electronic data management Electronic Discovery in
