Elements of Language Holt, Rinehart and Winston Staff, 2000-08      Resources in Education , 1999-10      Second Language Acquisition , 2024-09-04

Second Language Acquisition Learning Theories and Recent Approaches will aim to present the process of learning an additional language apart from one's native language. The process of understanding writing and speaking another language with fluency involves complex intellectual and emotional responses as well as continuous information processing abilities. A variety of perspectives is needed in order for learning to take place. Many factors both internal and external are involved in determining why some learn a second language at a faster rate than others. With an internal or external focus of attention, various linguistic techniques have explored the basic questions about SLA. With the ability to convey and structure information in a second language, there is a need for what is being learned to be viewed from various perspectives. The focus on continuous natural UG capability for language learning versus communicative processing requirements differs among viewpoints on how SLA develops. This book intends to provide readers with language acquisition, language comprehension, language development, language processing, and psychological and social variables which have been largely excluded by purely language approaches.

La publicación de este volumen representa un caso relativamente insólito. Un pequeño grupo de jóvenes investigadores de menos de treinta años convence a un grupo mucho más numeroso de la misma edad para celebrar en Salamanca la First Conference of Young Researchers on Anglophone Studies. El resultado es deslumbrante. No solo demuestran una gran capacidad organizativa sino que los resultados individuales de las aportaciones científicas son sobresalientes. Este volumen Current Trends in Anglophone Studies recoge una selección revisada de las propuestas presentadas en el Encuentro y gira en torno a una estructuración tripartita clásica: estudios culturales, lingüísticos y literarios. En ella caben todos aquellos que se mueven en el campo de los estudios anglofonos. Cada uno de estos campos podría haber sido suficiente para celebrar un congreso, pero parece razonable que en este tipo de encuentros tengan cabida todos. De ese modo, este volumen se convierte en un ejemplo de aproximación interdisciplinaria a los estudios anglofonos. Desde un punto de vista cuantitativo, los estudios culturales ocupan sin duda un espacio menor. Sin embargo, sobresale la variedad de temas tratados, así como la internacionalización de los autores dentro de este apartado. Estudiantes españoles e italianos acometen estudios relacionados con la música, la pintura, el cine, la traducción, la marginalidad social o el impacto de las nuevas tecnologías en la producción artística. Si no pareciera demasiado atrevido, podría decirse que estos jóvenes estudiosos irán más allá de lo que un día ya lejano pudieron imaginar Richard Hoggard o Raymond Williams. Los estudios aquí presentados reflejan sin duda la evolución que la propia sociedad ha experimentado en estos últimos cincuenta años y exploran la relación entre las prácticas culturales, la vida diaria y los contextos económicos, políticos e históricos. No es de extrañar que una gran parte de las contribuciones presentadas en este volumen se centren en el estudio de la lengua ya que la demanda del inglés se ha incrementado de forma considerable en los últimos años. Sobresalen los análisis puramente filológicos y sobre todo los relacionados con el aprendizaje del inglés como segunda lengua. Por eso destacan estudios que contemplan rasgos morfológicos léxicos o sintácticos. Sin embargo el mayor número de participaciones hace referencia al ya citado aprendizaje del inglés como L2 tanto desde el análisis de materiales como desde la práctica oral o escrita. Las contribuciones literarias ofrecen una evaluación teórica formal e interpretativa de distintas tendencias desde perspectivas tanto interdisciplinarias como interculturales. Cronológicamente los estudios abarcan textos desde el siglo XVIII hasta nuestros días con un acento especial en los autores más contemporáneos y en el género narrativo. En general estos estudios se fijan en textos concretos y los analizan desde perspectivas culturales sociológicas o psicológicas. Pero abundan menos las aproximaciones desde la teoría literaria desde la técnica narrativa o como tal vez cabría esperar al tratarse de estudiantes tan jóvenes desde la aplicación de las nuevas tecnologías. Por el contrario se repiten temas como los traumas heredados de la Guerra de Vietnam, las cicatrices del 11 de septiembre o los problemas de género. En definitiva se trata de una selección de artículos claramente prometedora que transmite la seguridad de que el futuro de la Filología Inglesa está en buenas manos y podrá experimentar una positiva evolución en los próximos años. Por todo ello hay que felicitar a todos los participantes individuales y sobre todo a los organizadores del evento y editores de este volumen que han demostrado una enorme capacidad de trabajo y de saber hacer.

Writing and Power Candace Mitchell, 2015-12-03 This book offers a much needed alternative to the more traditional texts used to teach writing instruction. Grounded in history the book clarifies changing theoretical and practical approaches to teaching writing critically assessing each approach in relation to the social and political movements of the day both within and beyond the university. The author takes us inside the real world of writing instruction not only from the viewpoint of instructor but as seen through the eyes of students struggling to make sense of the expectations of writing class. Mitchell emphasizes that writing entails far more than putting words to paper and delves into contextually variable culturally defined expectations that include multiple linguistic forms both oral and written highlighting the complexity of writing's while engaging the reader in lively academic debates about language and society. Teaching Writing in English as a Foreign Language Huan Zhao, Lawrence Jun Zhang, 2022-05-30 This book explores teachers' cognitions about the teaching of writing in English as a foreign language (EFL) and their teaching practice as well as factors influencing the formation and reformation process of their cognition. Taking stock of Bakhtin's dialogism as the theoretical framework the authors argue that the formation and reformation of teacher cognition is a dialogic process. A systematic analysis of participating teachers' cognition formation and reformation process suggests the highly individual nature of teachers' cognitions. EFL researchers and teachers, teacher educators, teacher education policymakers, university administrators and EFL textbook writers could draw on the findings of the study to provide better resources to implement the teaching of EFL writing more effectively. The study has adopted a mixed methods approach whose quantitative results show the patterns and differences of teacher cognition among teachers of different backgrounds and with different schooling education and working experiences The qualitative findings show in detail teachers cognition formation and reformation processes and the factors contributing to such processes revealing convergence and divergence of teachers stated cognitions with a focus on the discrepancy between teacher cognition and teaching practice These are useful lenses through which researchers and teachers will find significant implications for offering EFL writing instruction more effectively
