Empire Gratacap Samuel Be:

Externalising Migration Governance Through Civil Society Sabine Dini, Caterina Giusa, 2020-05-29 This book investigates how the externalisation of EU migration policies is implemented in Tunisia after the fall of the Ben Ali regime in 2011 through the involvement of civil society organisations The democratic transition initiated by the Tunisian Revolution led to the emergence of a vibrant civil society as a new actor in the implementation of migration policies In a country where migration issues are highly politicised and have strongly entered the public space civil society is now included in the EU Tunisia negotiation process and is assigned the role of an intermediary for the implementation of controversial European policies related to sedentarisation of the Tunisian population and to the construction of Tunisia as a country of destination The volume concludes by suggesting an alternative way of thinking about migrant struggles challenging the European border regime as uncivil society struggles Contemporary Photography in France Olga Smith, 2022-10-19 This compelling publication traces the broad arc of photography's development in France from the 1970s to the present day A decade by decade account reveals unexpected points of convergence between practices that are not usually considered in a comparative perspective These include photographic practices in contemporary art documentary photojournalism and fashion Author Olga Smith sets these practices in dialogue with French philosophy the writings of Roland Barthes Jean Baudrillard and Jacques Rancière to produce an innovative study of the intersections between the photographic image text practice and theory This analysis is guided by an understanding of photography as deeply engaged with historical cultural and intellectual events that defined French national experience in the contemporary period Landscape provides a particular focus to study issues of key significance including national identification colonial past legacies of modernization and environmental breakdown

Exile Didier Fassin, Anne-Claire Defossez, 2025-06-09 In recent decades the forced displacement of populations has fueled nationalism and xenophobia across the world arousing fear and hostility Policies have been implemented to deter migrants crack down on humanitarian workers and externalize border monitoring in remote territories Men women and children who flee political violence religious persecution or poverty in their country and set off on journeys often lasting years may find themselves on dangerous routes where they face police brutality gang rackets confinement camps barbed wire fences the rigors of the desert and the perils of the sea Many lose their lives But what do we really know about the experience of these people the hazards they encounter repression they endure and the assistance they receive This is what Didier Fassin and Anne Claire Defossez set out to uncover through the research they conducted at the border between Italy and France in a region of the Alps that has become since the mid 2010s a privileged site of passage for people arriving in Europe from Afghanistan Iran the Maghreb and sub Saharan Africa Over a period of five years they collected their poignant stories participated in the activities of a shelter took part in mountain rescue operations interviewed politicians policy makers and law enforcement officers Their investigation reveals the ineffectiveness of the militarization of the border and the dismay of the police who are aware of the futility of their mission it attests to the solidarity and commitment of the volunteers and it explores the form of life of exiles which has become a defining feature of our time This timely and well researched book will be of great value to students and scholars in sociology anthropology politics and geography and to anyone interested in migration and refugees today Eyes on Michaela Obermair,2016 The American Catalogue ,1891 New-York: Past, Present, and Future Ezekiel Porter Belden,1849 The American Catalogue ,1884 □□□□□□□□□□ ,1922 Science-fiction, the Early Years Everett Franklin Bleiler,1990 In this volume the author describes more than 3000 short stories novels and plays with science fiction elements from earliest times to 1930 He includes imaginary voyages utopias Victorian boys books dime novels pulp magazine stories British scientific romances and mainstream work with science fiction elements Many of these publications are extremely rare surviving in only a handful of copies and most of them have never been described before
