Ethics for Managers Joseph Gilbert, 2012 This book examines issues relating to ethical decision making in the managerial context Managers are paid to oversee the work of others and in the course of their work they often make decisions that impact other people This book is intended to help managers and students of management reflect on the impact of their decisions and to help them in making such decisions ethically Ethics has to do with interpersonal or social values and the rules of conduct that derive from them By the time an individual becomes a manager he or she invariably has a sense of moral right and wrong Author Joseph Gilbert examines the sources of this sense and how it is shaped and altered by various influences He lays the groundwork for discussion by delving into the meaning of ethics and its philosophical foundations then exploring its application to the task of management This balanced approach both makes clear the moral implications of actions taken by managers and provides some time tested ways of thinking about moral issues when they arise Without preaching or critiquing the reader's existing ethical sense Ethics for Managers prepares the manager or student of business to adequately address the difficult decisions that will crop up during their career in an ethical and self aware manner

Designing the Fitness Program John LeCuyer, 2001 Public safety work is dangerous and the link between fitness and remaining injury free has been well established by research Designing the Fitness Program examines the physical demands on public safety officers as well as an array of related health and safety issues In proposing that each public safety organization implements a fitness program for its personnel the author provides a variety of options for ensuring that the standards and test regimens adopted by a department are suitable both in terms of individual members and the roles that they fulfill His unique thought provoking analysis of test protocols will help organizations avoid many of the pitfalls associated with modern labour laws and declaring anyone whether rehabilitated member or new recruit fit for duty
