au bout du tunnel Salvation and Suicide David Chidester, 2018-11-01 An ambitious and courageous examination of the Jonestown cult viewed through the lens of theology Journal of the American Academy of Religion Re issued in recognition of the 25th anniversary of the mass suicides at Jonestown this revised edition of David Chidester's groundbreaking book features a new prologue that considers the meaning of the tragedy for a post Waco post 9 11 world For Chidester the murder suicide of some 900 members of the Peoples Temple in Guyana recalls the American religious commitment to redemptive sacrifice which for Jim Jones meant saving his followers from the evils of capitalist society Jonestown is ancient history writes Chidester but it does provide us with an opportunity to reflect upon the strangeness of familiar promises of redemption through sacrifice His original conclusion that the Peoples Temple was a meaningful religious movement seems all the more prescient and astute today when fundamentalism has raised the troubling spectre of violence and suicide all over the world

A Titanic Salvation Dr. Steve Joel Moffett, Sr., M.A., D.Min., 2016-10-13 This book was written to try to save the millions of souls that will be lost by the deception of the professional priesthood religious elite and denominationalism Rev Dr Steve Joel Moffett Sr M A D Min has an active 33 year ministry and is a powerful Christian Pastor who was gifted by our Creator with the entire 5 fold ministry Dr Moffett is also a Prophet Apostle Teacher and Evangelist He is in high demand as a speaker at conferences and revivals Critically Reviewed by Author The Internet and Democracy Building in Lusophone African Countries Susana Salgado, 2016-03-03 This timely book fills an important gap in the literature on the influence of the Internet and new media in Portuguese speaking African countries Based on extensive field work throughout the region the author examines the influence of the Internet in the transition to democracy in Africa and asks whether there are new possibilities for popular activism to emerge from evolving communication environments and media systems The book analyses the different forms of democracy the concept of development and addresses the debate about the relationship between democracy and development and explores the influence of the media in the democratization process the promises that digital media bring to this process and to development and the implications of the African digital divide In certain countries in this region democracy and independent news media are in their infancy but are starting to take hold giving an excellent opportunity to observe the dynamics of civil society and the influence of increased freedom new voting powers and new media in particular The book offers important insights into the roles and functions that the media in general and the Internet in particular can perform in the creation of a more democratic society as well as in empowering and educating citizens in democratic values Faiths across Time J. Gordon Melton, 2014-01-15 This monumental four volume reference overviews significant events and developments in religious history over the course of more than five millennia Written for high school students undergraduates and general readers interested in the history of world religions this massive reference chronicles developments in religious history from 3500 BCE through the 21st century The set comprises four volumes treating the ancient world from 3500 BCE through 499 CE 500 through 1399 1400 through 1849 and 1850 through 2009

Each volume includes hundreds of brief entries arranged chronologically and then further organized by region and religion. The entries provide fundamental information on topics ranging from the neolithic Ggantija temples near Malta through the election of Mary Douglas Glasspool as bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles in 2009. Global in scope and encyclopedic in breadth, this chronology of world religions is an essential purchase for all libraries concerned with the development of human civilization.

Rome Dorigen Sophie Caldwell, Lesley Caldwell, 2011. Few other cities can compare with Rome's history of continuous habitation nor with the survival of so many different epochs in its present. This volume explores how the city's past has shaped the way in which Rome has been built, rebuilt, represented, and imagined throughout its history. An imaginative approach to the study of the urban and architectural make-up of Rome, this volume will be valuable not only for historians of art and architecture but also for students of cultural history and film studies.

After Rome's Fall Walter Goffart, Walter A. Goffart, 1998-01-01. This collection of essays deals with a broad range of issues within the study of the past and present of the early Middle Ages. Subjects include war, power, ethnicity, gender, Charlemagne, and Carolingian history. The book is largely concerned with reading the sources, both medieval and modern, and interpreting their narrators.
