Encounter With Death:

The Human Encounter with Death Stanislav Grof, Joan Halifax, 1977 My Sweet Encounter with Death Ana Christina, 2013-12-24 Then I felt his body leaning over mine and his fingers holding my nostrils shut I could not breathe My teeth were clenched His fingers remained sealing my nose when suddenly my mouth and jaw opened up and I gasped for air Startled he released his grip on my nose and left the room leaving me paralyzed naked and curled up on the floor A few years ago Ana Christina was left for dead Despite the horrific circumstances it was a blessing in disguise the Lord delivered her from the hands of her perpetrator Ana Christina shares in such a vulnerable way that she takes her readers on a journey Her incredible path leaves one with the realization that the human soul is unconquerable Her honest open way of revealing herself literally gives her readers the permission and courage to get real with themselves experiencing a journey of self discovery self disclosure and eventually the uncovering of self immortality Jeffery Olsen Author of KNOWING and WHERE ARE YOU Adolescent Encounters With Death, Bereavement, and Coping Charles Corr, David Balk, 2009-03-16 Capturing from the start that Childhood is and always has been a vulnerable time we have a rich in gathering of contributed pieces that bring us into the raw fragile arena of children traumatized by life events and behaviors Illness Crisis and Loss Balk and Corr again have edited a book that will set the direction of the field for yet another decade Caregivers can count on this book for insight and intervention From the Foreword by Kenneth J Doka PhD Professor The Graduate School The College of New Rochelle Author Counseling Individuals With Life Threatening Illness Over a decade has passed since the publication of Balk and Corr s groundbreaking Handbook of Adolescent Death and Bereavement This new book Adolescent Encounters With Death Bereavement and Coping analyzes the challenges faced by adolescents coping with death dying and bereavement and examines the new unique circumstances and advances that have transpired over the last decade These include Grief and coping with HIV AIDS Adolescents humor and death Technology and the Internet coping with loss in the digital world Bereavement over the deaths of celebrities The book also explores critical imaginative conceptual frameworks and models that have emerged on the scene including The dual process model for understanding loss Ideas about assumptive worlds Debates about the benefit and harm of grief counseling New research on recovery and resilience following bereavement Written from the interdisciplinary perspectives of expert sociologists psychologists educators social workers nurses and anthropologists this book offers a breadth and depth of insight into the complex nature of adolescent bereavement Nurses counselors social workers and educators will find this book to be an invaluable resource when they try to understand and help adolescents coping with death related issues Death Work Vincent E. Henry, 2004-04-01 In this fascinating new book Vincent Henry a 21 year veteran of the NYPD who recently retired to become a university professor explores the psychological transformations and adaptations that result from police officers encounters with death Police can encounter death frequently in the course of their duties and these encounters may range from casual contacts with the deaths of others to the most profound and personally consequential confrontations with their own mortality Using the survivor psychology model as its theoretical base this insightful and provocative research ventures into a previously unexplored area of police psychology to illuminate and explore the new modes of adaptation thought and feeling that result from various types of death encounters in police work The psychology of survival asserts that the psychological world of the survivor one who has come in close physical or psychic contact with death but nevertheless managed to live is characterized by five themes psychic numbing death guilt the death imprint suspicion of counterfeit nurturance and the struggle to make meaning These themes become manifest in the survivor s behavior permeating his or her lifestyle and worldview Drawing on extensive interviews with police officers in five nominal categories rookie officers patrol sergeants crime scene technicians homicide detectives and officers who survived a mortal combat situation in which an assailant or another officer died Henry identifies the impact such death encounters have upon the individual the police organization and the occupational culture of policing He has produced a comprehensive and highly textured interpretation of police psychology and police behavior bolstered by the unique insights that come from his personal experience as an officer his intimate familiarity with the subtleties and nuances of the police culture s value and belief systems and his meticulous research and rigorous method Death Work provides a unique prism through which to view the individual organizational and social dynamics of contemporary urban policing With a foreword by Robert Jay Lifton and a chapter devoted to the local police response to the World Trade Center attacks Death Work will be of interest to psychologists and criminal justice experts as well as police officers eager to gain insight into their unique relationship to death

Handbook of Adolescent Death and Bereavement David E. Balk, PhD, 2004-01-01 In this comprehensive handbook Charles Corr and David Balk improve our understanding of the challenges faced by adolescents when coping with death dying and bereavement The volume is organized into three parts Part I addresses specific issues involved in confrontations with death Part II focuses on the role of bereavement Part III explains specific therapeutic interventions for caregivers The authors introduce us to adolescence as a special time in the human life cycle a period quite separate from childhood and adulthood They establish normative adolescents and explain developmental tasks that are typical of early middle and late adolescence

The Soul of Jewish Social Justice Rabbi Dr. Shmuly Yanklowitz, 2014-05-01 The Soul of Jewish Social Justice offers a novel intellectual and spiritual approach for how Jewish wisdom must be relevant and transformational in its application to the most pressing moral problems of our time The book explores how spirituality ritual narratives holidays and tradition can enhance one s commitment to creating a more just society Readers will discover how the Jewish social justice ethos can help address issues of education reform ethical consumption the future of Israel immigration prison reform violence and business ethics

The Theology of Death Douglas Davies, 2008-07-31 The first part of the book is grounded in biblical issues and in historical and philosophical theology It seeks to establish several schemes of death theology related for example to early Christianity s Jewish cultural milieu to belief in Christ s resurrection and to Christology to issues of millennial belief and to an emergent liturgical practice The rise of notions of the soul in relation to medieval thought and practice and the place of death in reformation theology are both covered as is the role of the nineteenth and twentieth century Finally the rise of biblical theology is considered especially in the twentieth century The second part of the book takes up several contemporary models of the theology of death The first pursues a traditional acceptance of an other worldly afterlife the second explores worldly analysis of eternal life as a quality of contemporary existence devoid of any future state The third develops the worldly model and considers a wider sense of self as a part of an ecological view of the world as a divine creation and explores the meaning of birth life and death amidst a divine environment The Theology of Death aims to offer some sharply defined schemes to focus thought in a Christian environment in which death hell and heaven have almost lost their place The topic of hope is a key element and the book explores the birth and fostering of hope within Christian traditions Death, Dying and Bereavement: The human encounter with death Kenneth J. Doka, 2007

Reflections on Time and Politics Nathan Widder, 2010-11-01 Hard, Hard Religion John Hayes, 2017-09-19 In his captivating study of faith and class John Hayes examines the ways folk religion in the early twentieth century allowed the South's poor both white and black to listen borrow and learn from each other about what it meant to live as Christians in a world of severe struggle Beneath the well documented religious forms of the New South people caught in the region's poverty crafted a distinct folk Christianity that spoke from the margins of capitalist development giving voice to modern phenomena like alienation and disenchantment Through haunting songs of death mystical tales of conversion grassroots sacramental displays and an ethic of neighborliness impoverished folk Christians looked for the sacred in their midst and affirmed the value of this life in this world From Tom Watson and W E B Du Bois over a century ago to political commentators today many have ruminated on how despite material commonalities the poor of the South have been perennially divided by racism Through his excavation of a folk Christianity of the poor which fused strands of African and European tradition into a new synthesis John Hayes recovers a historically contingent moment of interracial exchange generated in hardship
