

Farewell First Grade!

Tune: Baa Baa Black Sheep

Bye, bye classroom
Now the year is through.
2nd grade, 2nd grade
Moving on to you!

I know how to count
And write ABCs.
I'll do well in 2nd Grade,
just you wait and see!

Bye bye classroom
Now the year is through.
2nd grade, 2nd grade
Moving on to you!

The Ones We Remember Tim Urdan, Frank Pajares,2008-08-01 Paulo Freire wrote that sometimes a simple almost insignificant gesture on the part of a teacher can have a profound formative effect on the life of a student

Sometimes of course this formative effect is not the result of a simple isolated gesture but rather of a proactive and sustained series of gestures on the part of a teacher Many of us have been deeply influenced by one or more teachers who have exercised a formative effect in our development as students and individuals We remember these teachers with fondness tell their stories to our own children think of them with affection respect gratitude even reverence Sometimes we recognized this influence as it was happening and we grew close to these remarkable individuals keeping them in our lives even after we graduated from their classes Often however they themselves were unaware of the influence they exercised over us for it was not until years passed that we realized their effect If time and distance did not prevent it perhaps we found our way back to these educators and shared with them our appreciation and gratitude In this volume outstanding scholars in the fields of adolescence and education provide short stories describing their most memorable teacher Some provide the story on its own other follow it with a brief analysis drawn from theory and research in education psychology and human development to identify key concepts and principles that apply in explaining why the selected teacher was so effective and memorable Some write about one specific teacher others write about the qualities that they believe contribute to teaching excellence including anecdotes from various teachers to support the qualities they identified Each tells the story with an eye toward being accessible to a wide audience of readers One need not be an academic or an expert in education or psychology to understand and find meaning in these stories In essence these are stories and analyses that capture just what it is that makes a particular teacher as our title describes unforgettable This book would be excellent for teacher preparation courses educational psychology courses and for anyone who is interested in the art and science of teaching

Be the Oldest Mom in the PTA Sharon O'Donnell, 2018-07-10 Motherhood is not what it used to be as more moms than ever before are having children later on in life This is the must have book for all moms who had a child after the age of 35 a group the medical profession not so kindly calls advanced maternal age Sharon O'Donnell writes about the humorous and poignant stories of having a child at 38 and how she discovered that breastfeeding and AARP membership aren't really all that far apart Sharon says being a mom of a certain age can be tough and rewarding and rather alarming when you realize that all the TV programs you watch have commercials for incontinence or the Scooter Store Welcome to Poetryland Shelley Savren, 2016-06-13 Welcome to Poetryland Teaching Poetry Writing to Young Children draws from Shelley Savren's forty years of teaching poetry writing in grades pre K 6 and to focus populations including gifted and special education students students in after school programs and at art museums and homeless abused or neglected students Each chapter begins with a student quote and an original poem followed by heartfelt stories of working with that particular group and concludes with lesson plans complete with introductions of poetic concepts model poems by professionals open ended writing assignments methods for sharing and critiquing and one or two student poems Designed for use in a classroom this book features thirty eight lesson plans and twenty three additional poetry writing workshop ideas It provides guidance and inspiration for anyone who wants to teach poetry writing to children I wish Shelley would teach the whole world poetry 1st grade student I want to be a poetry writer when I grow up 2nd grade student What I found out about myself was that I have an imagination And a good one 6th grade student Dynamic Instructional Leadership to Support Student Learning and Development Edward T.
