Ann McCutchan, 2016-10-11 When you lose your parents just as you have left home for graduate school glad to finally be away from a life and place you found stifling how do you make your way in a world with no home to go back to For Ann McCutchan whose parents died in a car accident when she was twenty three the answer was to keep moving away from the dream her mom and dad had so hopefully embraced in her childhood and away from the locus of that dream the state of Florida in the 1960s In this coming of age memoir McCutchan a writer and musician returns to Florida to reconcile with the life she had there Reconnecting with old friends and long forgotten places she confronts the transformation of wetland real estate she knew as a child into south Florida suburbs and the booming Space Coast a transformation her father enthusiastically if not altogether successfully promoted She revisits the frustrations and aspirations of her youth and musical awakening comes to a deeper understanding of the meaning of the cultural shifts she experienced in the sixties and achieves a new appreciation of the history and aspirations of the two people who meant the most to her None of This Belongs to Me Ellie Sawatzky, 2021-10-16 In this vibrant debut Ellie Sawatzky rustles the underbrush of identity seeking clarity on the nature of ownership and belonging Haunted and inspired by old boyfriends girls named Emily ancestral ghosts polar bears and mythic horses None of This Belongs to Me plots a young woman s coming of age in a time of environmental and socio economic peril From rural Ontario to Kitsilano to Burning Man Sawatzky inquires into childhood learning girlhood learning what is inherited what is acquired what begins to take form in the iridescent space between innocence and experience The body s crystal arithmetic Superimposing dreamscapes on realities history on pop culture and everyday sorrows this collection is a hymn for the broken hearted a plea for connection in the information age and a call to question the ways in which we both nurture and harm one another and our environment None of This Belongs to Me is pertinent now more than ever as Sawatzky s generation comes of age in a tumultuous time forced to consider all of that which does not and may never belong to them These poems invite readers to explore our inner and outer worlds to question the ways we inhabit them to infuse our modern lives with our potent histories      Down Beat ,1982 The contemporary music magazine
