8. Turn your body toward the speaker and the speaker's face. This is called "fronting" the speaker. It shows that you are listening to the speaker and that you are interested in what he or she is saying. It also shows that you are not afraid to look at the speaker's face. This is a good habit to develop in all situations where you are listening to someone speak.

8. If your answer to #7 is "yes," then you must provide a written explanation of the reasons for your decision.
