Fort Hare Application Forms Of 2015:

The De-Africanization of African Art Denis Ekpo, Pfunzo Sidogi, 2021-08-12 This book argues for a radical new approach to thinking about art and creativity in Africa challenging outdated normative discourses about Africa's creative heritage Africanism which is driven by a traumatic response to colonialism in Africa has an almost unshakable stranglehold on the content stylistics and meaning of art in Africa Post African aesthetics insists on the need to move beyond this counter colonial self consciousness and considerably change re work and enlarge the ground principles and mission of artistic imagination and creativity in Africa This book critiques and dismantles the tropes of Africanism and Afrocentrism providing the criteria and methodology for a Post African art theory or Post African aesthetics Grounded initially in essays by Denis Ekpo the father of Post Africanism the book then explores a range of applications and interpretations of Post African theory to the art forms and creative practices in Africa With particular reference to South Africa this book will be of interest to researchers across the disciplines of Art Literature Media Studies Cultural Anthropology and African Studies Smart Cities and Smart Spaces: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2018-09-07 As populations have continued to grow and expand many people have made their homes in cities around the globe With this increase in city living it is becoming vital to create intelligent urban environments that efficiently support this growth and simultaneously provide friendly and progressive environments to both businesses and citizens alike Smart Cities and Smart Spaces Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications is an innovative reference source that discusses social economic and environmental issues surrounding the evolution of smart cities Highlighting a range of topics such as smart destinations urban planning and intelligent communities this multi volume book is designed for engineers architects facility managers policymakers academicians and researchers interested in expanding their knowledge on the emerging trends and topics involving smart cities Anchored in Place Bank, Leslie, Cloete, Nico, 2018-11-05 Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity particularly access and affordability historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism and the shape and structure of the higher education system What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges

Crowdfunding and Sustainable Urban Development in Emerging Economies Benna, Umar G.,Benna, Abubakar U.,2018-02-28 Economic and societal systems continually evolve as the needs and demands of society change With the development of new technologies research and discoveries various opportunities emerge for venture development and developing economies Crowdfunding and Sustainable Urban Development in Emerging Economies provides innovative research on current issues in the rise of new platforms for digital activities a collaborative economy crowdsourcing crowdfunding and other activities that are shaping developing countries Highlighting a range of pertinent topics such as infrastructure finance tertiary educational institutions and urban sustainability this book is an important resource for academicians practitioners researchers and students Sociology in South Africa R.

Sooryamoorthy,2016-08-13 This book is the first comprehensive account of the history and current state of South African sociology Providing a holistic picture of the subject both as it is taught in universities and as a field of research it reveals the trajectories of a discipline in a challenging socio political context With the support of historical and scientometric data it demonstrates how the changing political situation from colonialism to apartheid to democracy has influenced the nature direction and foci of sociological research in the country The author shows how during the apartheid era sociology was professionally fragmented and divided along language and race lines It was however able to flourish with the advent of democracy in 1994 and has become a unique academic movement This insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of the social sciences and all those interested in the history and society of South Africa Negotiating Patriarchy and Gender in Africa Ngozi Edeagu,Egodi Uchendu,2021-08-26 A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title

Negotiating Patriarchy and Gender in Africa Discourses Practices and Policies examines the entrenchment of patriarchy in Africa and its attendant socioeconomic and political consequences on gender relations The contributors analyze the historical and modern ways in which gender expectations have enabled women in African societies to be systematically abused and marginalized from unpaid labor to poor representation in decision making areas Exploring regions such as rural Uganda the suburbs of Zimbabwe the Gold Coast South Africa and Nigeria contributors incorporate a wide range of academic theories and disciplines to establish the need for improved policy implementation on gender issues at both the local and national government levels in Africa

New Trends in Psychobiography Claude-Hélène Mayer,Zoltan Kovary,2019-08-06 This volume offers insights into contemporary trends and perspectives in psychobiographical research It applies new theoretical and methodological frameworks and presents discourses on psychobiography from transdisciplinary backgrounds and various socio cultural contexts displaying the new state of the art new trends and themes in psychobiography The book outlines psychobiography s outstanding contribution to psychology from 36 internationally reputable authors It also presents the ideas of five outstanding psychobiographers through interview excerpts This book is a must for researchers lecturers and practitioners in the field of psychology and social sciences interested in the use of new psychological theories and methodologies in life span research

Femicide in War and Peace Shalva Weil,2023-05-22 This book discusses the phenomenon of femicide the killing of women globally because of their gender in peacetime and in war Femicide in war is different from femicide in peace and yet the dividing line between the two is thin Violence against women happens in many forms from emotional psychological and financial abuse and barriers to personal autonomy to physical and sexual abuse terminating in murder It includes infanticide sex selection misogynistic laws and cultural practices and can include genital mutilation forced sterilization or forced pregnancy Women experience these forms of violence during peacetime as well as in times of crisis conflict or national insecurity The Covid 19 pandemic led to an increase in violence against women as they were thrown back to their violent partners who were released from jail because of the global plague This volume draws upon cases from both Global North and Global South to give a detailed view of crimes against women and how femicide is perceived in different countries It brings together scholars from diverse countries and disciplines and from many parts of the world where femicide has never or rarely been reported This book will be a beneficial read for advanced students and researchers of Gender Studies War and Conflict Studies and Terrorism It was originally published in Peace Review

Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen,2023-02 Through investigatory reports and interviews Jonathan Jansen reveals the structural conditions for chronic dysfunction in a sample of South African universities He reveals the political economy at work and the intense competition for resources on campuses He also provides interventions for these fragile institutions

Interdisciplinary Approaches to the Future of Africa and Policy Development Tshabangu, Icarbord,2022-03-11

Despite several idealistic efforts towards a united Africa the term remains a hypothetical concept symbolizing a desired federal state on the continent While globalization and interconnectedness have brought prosperity in some parts of the world Africa has not generally benefited from global decisions These decisions policies and practices have tended to be wholly influenced by the rich and powerful countries and their transnational agencies and corporations in pursuit of their national interests Faced with such enormous external economic and political forces the divided and powerless African states have been unable to bargain for lucrative economic deals or pursue national interests for the benefit of their people hence the need to examine what exists in varied fields and the emerging trends for the future Interdisciplinary Approaches to the Future of Africa and Policy Development addresses critical issues and challenges in Africa and seeks to examine and understand the future trends in Africa through a deconstructive interrogation of present trends Covering a wide range of topics such as sustainability equality and democracy it is ideal for researchers academicians students economists policymakers political parties trade unions and NGOs

Going to University. The Influence of Higher Education on the Lives of Young South Africans Jennifer Case, Delia Marshall, 2018-02-09 Around the world more young people than ever before are attending university Student numbers in South Africa have doubled since democracy and for many families higher education is a route to a better future for their children But alongside the overwhelming demand for higher education questions about its purposes have intensified Deliberations about the curriculum culture and costing of public higher education abound from student activists academics parents civil society and policy makers We know from macro research that South African graduates generally have good employment prospects But little is known at a detailed level about how young people actually make use of their university experiences to craft their life courses And even less is known about what happens to those who drop out This accessible book brings together the rich life stories of 73 young people six years after they began their university studies It traces how going to university influences not only their employment options but also nurtures the agency needed to chart their own way and to engage critically with the world around them The book offers deep insights into the ways in which public higher education is both a private and public good and it provides significant conclusions pertinent to anyone who works in and cares about universities

Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory, 1998 Genders, Sexualities, and Complexities in Africa Gabi Mkhize, Stanley Osezua Ehiane, Lupenga Mphande, 2025-02-20 This book's significance is in its African centred border crossing overt and covert forces working against genders and sexualities reinforcing endemic gender and sexual based complexities Pragmatically sexualities and genders in Africa remain contested and an area of power and control contestations in both the private and public spheres Gender based violence and femicide GBVF in particular continue to escalate particularly during the COVID 19 pandemic Such GBVF at most affects young women migrants LGBTIQIA people sex workers informal street traders and widows amongst others This is happening at a time when the feminist and women's movements in Africa are experiencing fragmentations and factions that pull and push organising to the margins of prejudice internally thereby exacerbating an act of subordinated inclusion In this context the term subordinated inclusion connotes another form of complexity where the subaltern has been brought inside a room as an act of inclusion yet systemically subordinated through structure and obedience thereby compromising agency This complexity occurs in private and public domains where a continuum of contestations between structure and agency is sustained Consequently power struggles emerge and proliferate unabated into gendered and sexualised complexities including relations of state coloniality apartheid prejudice marginalization capitalism and democracy This book thus strives to surface these contestations and complexities and how they continue to thrive in an era that seeks another way possible a way out a jump off a manner of dealing and an exit from the status quo

Advancements in the Understanding of Anthropogenic Impacts on the Microbial Ecology and Function of Aquatic Environments Rodrigo Gouvea Taketani, Sara Beier, Francisco Dini-Andreote, Camila Fernandez, 2022-02-24 Ghosts of Archive Verne Harris, 2020-12-21 Ghosts of Archive draws on the discourses of deconstruction intersectionality and archetypal psychology to mount an argument that archive is fundamentally and structurally spectral and that the work of archive is justice Drawing on more than 20 years of the author's research on deconstruction and archive the book posits archive as an essential resource for social justice activism and as a source or location of soul for individuals and communities Through explorations of what Jacques Derrida termed hauntology Harris invites a listening to the call for justice in conceptual spaces that are non disciplinary He argues that archive is both constructed in relation to and beset by ghosts ghosts of the living of the dead and of those not yet born and that attention should be paid to them Establishing a unique nexus between a deconstructive intersectionality and traditions of memory for justice in struggles against oppression from South Africa and elsewhere the book makes a case for a deconstructive praxis in today's archive Offering new ideas about spectrality banditry and archival activism Ghosts of Archive should appeal to those working in the disciplines of archival science information studies and psychology It should also be essential reading for those with an interest in social justice issues transitional justice history philosophy memory studies and postcolonial studies Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders, Peter Limb, 2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa's past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa Driving Change Trish Gibbon,2014-06-14 Driving Change tells a story that exemplifies a basic law of physics known to all the application of a relatively small lever can shift weight create movement and initiate change far in excess of its own size It tells a story about a particular instance of development cooperation relatively modest in scope and aim that has nonetheless achieved remarkable things and has been held up as an exemplar of its kind It does not tell a story of flawless execution and perfectly achieved outcomes it is instead a narrative that gives some insight into the structural and organisational arrangements the institutional and individual commitments and above all the work intelligence and passion of its participants which made the SANTED Programme a noteworthy success Global Development of the Community College Model Carmen L. McCrink,Heidi Whitford,Natasha C. Stubbs,2017-03-13 While the community college is a longstanding institutional type within the U S the success of this model has recently garnered international attention As countries outside the U S grapple with issues regarding access and affordability of higher education opportunity the concept of the community college has gained traction This issue explores The global expansion and development of the community college model in various countries and regions around the world Insights into the establishment and sustainability of these institutions in other countries through research and analysis and Case studies that focus on the development and implementation process of community colleges amid various social political and economic contexts This is the 177th volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Essential to the professional libraries of presidents vice presidents deans and other leaders in today s open door institutions New Directions for Community Colleges provides expert guidance in meeting the challenges of their distinctive and expanding educational mission Seaweeds Secondary Metabolites Diana Cláudia Pinto,2020-02-21 Seaweeds are recognized as highly nutritious and their use in gastronomy is increasing Their health benefits and their potential to prevent several diseases have also been established In this Special Issue several health effects are discussed with more emphasis on their antitumor activity and potential use to treat Alzheimer s disease The key bioactive metabolites from which phlorotannins can be highlighted are presented as well as some important in vivo studies Altogether the chapters provide in depth information about the biological activities of seaweed metabolites contributing to elucidate the health effects of seaweed
