Get In Trouble Stories:

Get in Trouble Kelly Link, 2016-02-09 NATIONAL BESTSELLER PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST A bewitching story collection from the author of White Cat Black Dog and The Book of Love hailed as the most darkly playful voice in American fiction Michael Chabon and our greatest living fabulist Carmen Maria Machado Ridiculously brilliant These stories make you laugh while staring into the void The Boston Globe A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR BuzzFeed Time The Washington Post NPR Chicago Tribune San Francisco Chronicle Slate Toronto Star Kirkus Reviews BookPage Kelly Link has won an ardent following for her ability with each new short story to take readers deeply into an unforgettable brilliantly constructed fictional universe The nine exquisite examples in this collection show her in full command of her formidable powers In The Summer People a young girl in rural North Carolina serves as uneasy caretaker to the mysterious never quite glimpsed visitors who inhabit the cottage behind her house In I Can See Right Through You a middle aged movie star makes a disturbing trip to the Florida swamp where his former on and off screen love interest is shooting a ghost hunting reality show In The New Boyfriend a suburban slumber party takes an unusual turn and a teenage friendship is tested when the spoiled birthday girl opens her big present a life size animated doll Hurricanes astronauts evil twins bootleggers Ouija boards iguanas The Wizard of Oz superheroes the Pyramids These are just some of the talismans of an imagination as capacious and as full of wonder as that of any writer today But as fantastical as these stories can be they are always grounded by sly humor and an innate generosity of feeling for the frailty and the hidden strengths of human beings In Get in Trouble this one of a kind talent expands the boundaries of what short fiction can do Looking for Trouble and other Mostly Yeoville Stories Colleen Higgs, 2012

Looking for Trouble is a collection of short stories set in Yeoville from the mid 1980s to the early 1990s The stories capture with a dark humour the lives of young people trying to make a go of things given the constraints of the country and the volatile period Most of the stories have been published in literary magazines or in collections in South Africa the UK and Uganda The Stories of H.C. Bunner Henry Cuyler Bunner, 1894 Stories from the Heart of a Child Faith

Easter, 2016-03-29 Faith was born and raised in South Weymouth Massachusetts After many years of psychological and emotional abuse both at home and at school and not being allowed to talk about it she began writing her thoughts down on paper Eventually these thoughts turned into poems and stories of hope for children Faith never got the help she needed as a child so she decided to write stories that would help them understand that they're not alone and somewhere out there someone is waiting to help His name is Jesus Faith still resides in Weymouth with her calico cat Milo and attends Community Baptist Church in East Weymouth where she is very active Telling Stories Lee Martin, 2017-10 A prolific and award winning writer Lee Martin has put pen to paper to offer his wisdom honed during thirty years of teaching the oh so elusive art of writing Telling Stories is intended for anyone interested in thinking more about the elements of storytelling in short stories novels and memoirs Martin clearly delineates helpful and practical techniques for demystifying the writing process and provides tools for perfecting the art of the scene characterization detail point of view language and revision in short the art of writing His discussion of the craft in his own life draws from experiences memories and stories to provide a more personal perspective on the elements of writing Martin provides encouragement by sharing what he s learned from his journey through frustrations challenges and successes Most important Telling Stories emphasizes that you are not alone on this journey and that writers must remain focused on what they love the process of moving words on the page By focusing on that purpose Martin contends the journey will always take you where you re meant to go Getting Into Good Trouble at School Gregory C. Hutchings, Jr.,Douglas S. Reed,2022-05-10 Turn the promise of equitable education into reality This is your guidebook for building an antiracist school Written by two education leaders with very different life experiences Getting into Good Trouble At School provides the context empowerment and concrete actions needed to dismantle racist policies and practices that for decades have kept students of color from experiencing the same success as their white counterparts The journeys of Gregory Hutchings and Douglas Reed which include systemic racism and white privilege provide a unique model superintendents principals school board members and other educators can use to reimagine educational equity actively dismantle institutional racism and implement strategic methodical policies that benefit the entire school community In this book you ll find A detailed case study of antiracist educational transformation What it really means to commit to racial equity Guidance for dismantling tracking and in school segregation Positive equitable alternatives to typical disciplinary practices Six steps to building an antiracist school system Racism isn t always intentional Antiracism on the other hand must be Now antiracist education leaders can put their intentions into action and grant the promise of an equitable and culturally rich education to all students Family Stories and the Life Course Michael W. Pratt,Barbara H. Fiese,2004-04-26 This edited book draws from work that focuses on the act of telling family stories as well as their content and structure The process of telling family stories is linked to central aspects of development including language acquisition affect regulation and family interaction patterns This book extends across traditional developmental psychology personality theory and family studies Drawing broadly on the epigenetic framework for individual development articulated by Erik Erikson as well as on conceptions of the family life cycle the editors bring together contemporary examples of psychological research on family stories and their implications for development and change at different points in the life course The book is divided into sections that focus on family stories at different points in the life cycle from early childhood and the beginnings of narrative skill through adolescence young adulthood midlife and then mature adulthood and its intergenerational meaning During each of these periods of the life cycle research focusing on individual development within an Eriksonian framework of ego strengths and virtues is highlighted The dynamic role of family stories is also featured here with work exploring the links between family process intergenerational attachment and storytelling Sociocultural theories that emphasize how such development is situated in the wider cultural context are also featured in several chapters This broad lifespan developmental focus serves to integrate the exciting diversity of this work and foster further questions and research in the emerging field of family narrative. The book is intended primarily for researchers and advanced level students in the fields of developmental and personality psychology as well as those in family studies and in gerontology. It may also be of interest to those in the helping professions who are concerned with family therapy and family issues and may, due to its content and illustrative material, have appeal to a wider market of the lay public. The chapters are written in a readily accessible style and the analyses are presented in a fairly non-technical way. Because family stories are charted across the lifespan, it would be a suitable companion book to a more traditional lifespan textbook in certain courses.

BOOKS ONE TWO THREE in the BESTSELLING Six Stories series

Elusive online journalist Scott King investigates a series of cold cases in his Six Stories podcasts interviewing witnesses whose testimonies shed new light on unsolved cases for fans of Serial.

Book ONE Six Stories WHSmith Fresh Talent Pick for Summer 2017

One body Six stories Which one is true

1997 Scarclaw Fell The body of teenager Tom Jeffries is found at an outdoor bound centre. Verdict: Misadventure. But not everyone is convinced. And the truth of what happened in the beautiful but eerie fell is locked in the memories of the tight-knit group of friends who embarked on that fateful trip and the flimsy testimony of those living nearby.

2017 Enter elusive investigative journalist Scott King whose podcast examinations of complicated cases have rivalled the success of Serial with his concealed identity making him a cult internet figure. In a series of six interviews King attempts to work out how the dynamics of a group of idle teenagers conspired with the sinister legends surrounding the fell to result in Jeffries' mysterious death. And who's to blame? As every interview unveils a new revelation you'll be forced to work out for yourself how Tom Jeffries died and who is telling the truth.

Book TWO Hydra A family massacre A deluded murderess Five witnesses Six Stories Which one is true

One cold November night in 2014 in a small town in the northwest of England 21-year-old Arla Macleod bludgeoned her mother, stepfather and younger sister to death with a hammer in an unprovoked attack known as the Macleod Massacre. Now incarcerated at a medium security mental health institution Arla will speak to no one but Scott King, an investigative journalist whose Six Stories podcasts have become an internet sensation. King finds himself immersed in an increasingly complex case interviewing five key witnesses and Arla herself as he questions whether Arla's responsibility for the massacre was as diminished as her legal team made out. As he unpicks the stories he finds himself thrust into a world of deadly forbidden games, online trolls and the mysterious black-eyed kids whose presence seems to extend far beyond the delusions of a murderess.

Book THREE Changeling LONGLISTED for the Theakston Old Peculier Crime Novel of the Year

A missing child A family in denial Six witnesses Six stories Which one is true

On Christmas Eve in 1988 seven-year-old Alfie Marsden vanished in the dark Wentshire Forest Pass when his father Sorrel stopped the car to investigate a mysterious knocking sound. No trace of the child nor his remains have ever been found. Alfie Marsden was declared officially dead in 1995.

Elusive online

journalist Scott King whose Six Stories podcasts have become an internet sensation investigates the disappearance interviewing six witnesses including Sorrel and his ex partner to try to find out what really happened that fateful night Journeying through the trees of the Wentshire Forest a place synonymous with strange sightings and tales of hidden folk who dwell there he talks to a company that tried and failed to build a development in the forest and a psychic who claims to know what happened to the little boy Frighteningly wonderful one of the best books I ve read in years Khurram Rahman A creepy chilling read that is ridiculously difficult to put down Luca Veste Wonderfully horrifying the suspense crackles James Oswald Original inventive and dazzlingly clever Fiona Cummins
