ABSTRACT

The North Carolina Department of Public Education has developed an equal employment/affirmative action policy in accordance with Federal civil rights laws, and directives from the State Board of Education. Rather than merely ensuring anti-biased hiring practices, the policy provides for the recruitment, employment and promotion of qualified members of groups which were formerly excluded. The basic premise is that positive action must be taken to overcome the effects of previous discrimination and exclusion. The terms and goals of the policies are defined. The following policies and plans are described in detail: (1) Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy, including approach and implementation; (2) Sexual Harassment Policy/Plan, including approach and implementation; (3) Policy Dissemination, including a manual, staff meetings, memoranda, and public notices; (4) Program Responsibilities, including functions of various staff, the personnel office, and the Affirmative Action Advisory Committee; (5) Goals and Timetables; (6) Affirmative Action Programs, including employee rights and responsibilities; and (7) Program Evaluation, to be conducted by the Personnel Director and Equal Employment Opportunity officers using the goals established as a guide. Statistical descriptions of the female and minority workforce by agency and job classification are provided. Eight appendices provide sample forms, recruitment and employment guidelines, information about equal employment/affirmative action efforts in North Carolina public education, and demographic information about the North Carolina workforce specifically and the State population in general. Becoming Fluent Richard Roberts, Roger Kreuz, 2017-02-03 Forget everything you've heard about adult language learning evidence from cognitive science and psychology prove we can learn foreign languages just as easily as children An eye opening study on how adult learners can master a foreign language by drawing on skills and knowledge honed over a lifetime Adults who want to learn a foreign language are often discouraged because they believe they cannot acquire a language as easily as children Once they begin to learn a language adults may be further discouraged when they find the methods used to teach children don't seem to work for them What is an adult language learner to do In this book Richard Roberts and Roger Kreuz draw on insights from psychology and cognitive science to show that adults can master a foreign language if they bring to bear the skills and knowledge they have honed over a lifetime Adults shouldn't try to learn as children do they should learn like adults Roberts and Kreuz report evidence that adults can learn new languages even more easily than children Children appear to have only two advantages over adults in learning a language they acquire a native accent more easily and they do not suffer from self-defeating anxiety about learning a language Adults on the other hand have the greater advantages gained from experience of an understanding of their own mental processes and knowing how to use language to do things Adults have an especially advantageous grasp of pragmatics the social use of language and Roberts and Kreuz show how to leverage this metalinguistic ability in learning a new language Learning a language takes effort But if adult learners apply the tools acquired over a lifetime it can be enjoyable and rewarding

Gender-Based Differences in Exposure to and Usage of Camfranglais in Yaoundé Gardy Stein, 2022-03-18 This highly engaging and innovative book about the Cameroonian youth language Camfranglais explores gender based differences in exposure to and usage of the variety through a comparative study It thus adopts a rare gender based approach to the highly complex linguistic phenomenon Camfranglais a mix of French Verlan English Pidgin and Cameroonian languages While youth language studies flourish in sociolinguistic research this book's explicit focus on female speakers their linguistic attitudes and experiences of exclusion is unique It investigates which factors influence language choice among young urban speakers and especially what contributes to the overall male dominance in the usage of Camfranglais To achieve this goal the attitudes of both adolescents and adults as well as the channels of reproduction and distribution of the variety are examined A special focus is laid on the processes of conscious transformation and exclusion by which male speakers try to restrict the access for female speakers The book will appeal to academic scholars from a wide variety of fields such as African linguistics anthropology sociology and gender studies as well as the general reader who wants to learn about an exciting language contact scenario and its outcome
