Introduction to Criminology Pamela J. Schram, Stephen G. Tibbetts, 2020-01-21 Introduction to Criminology Why Do They Do It offers a contemporary and integrated discussion of key criminological theories to help students understand crime in the 21st century Focusing on why offenders commit crimes authors Pamela J Schram and Stephen G Tibbetts apply established theories to real life examples to explain criminal behavior Coverage of violent and property crimes is included throughout theory chapters so that students can clearly understand the application of theory to criminal behavior The Third Edition includes new and expanded coverage of timely topics such as victimization measuring crime multicide gun control and hate crimes This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package Public Catastrophes, Private Losses Sarah Tobias, Arlene Stein, 2025-01-14 From COVID to climate change induced wildfires and hurricanes we live in an era when catastrophes have become the new normal But even though these events affect us all some members of society are more vulnerable to harm than others This essay collection explores how the definition of catastrophe might be expanded to include many forms of large scale structural violence on communities species and ecosystems Using feminist methodologies the contributors to Public Catastrophes Private Losses trace the connections between seemingly unrelated forms of violence such as structural racism environmental degradation and public health crises In contrast to a news media that focuses on mass fatalities and immediate consequences these essays call our attention to how catastrophes can also involve slow violence with long term effects The authors also consider how these catastrophes are profoundly shaped by government action or inaction offering a powerful critique of how government neglect has cost lives and demonstrating how vulnerable populations can be better protected The essays in this collection examine how public catastrophes imprint themselves on lives as individuals and communities narrate process and grapple with legacies of loss The book is thus a feminist intervention that challenges the binary between public and private personal and political International and Comparative Librarianship Peter Johan Lor, 2019-06-17 Based on his extensive experience in international librarianship Peter Johan Lor South Africa s first National Librarian and a former Secretary General of the IFLA has written the first comprehensive and systematic overview of international and comparative librarianship His book provides a conceptual framework and methodological guidelines for the field and covers the full range of international relations among libraries and information services with particular attention to the international political economy of information the international diffusion of innovations and policy in library and information services LIS development and international aid It concludes with a discussion of the practical relevance and future of international and comparative studies in LIS See a short interview with Peter Lor on his work <https://www.ifla.org/node/92590>
