Grasset,... Joseph Grasset, Pierre Janet, 1904 Rachilde and French Women's Authorship Melanie Hawthorne, 2001-01-01 Under the assumed name Rachilde Marguerite Eymery 1860 1953 wrote over sixty works of fiction drama poetry memoir and criticism including Monsieur V nus one of the most famous examples of decadent fiction She was closely associated with the literary journal Mercure de France inspired parts of Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray and mingled with all the literary lights of the day Yet for all that very little has been written about her Melanie C Hawthorne corrects this oversight and counters the traditional approach to Rachilde by persuasively portraying this eccentric as patently representative of the French women writers of her time and of the social and literary issues they faced Seen in this light Rachilde's writing clearly illustrates important questions in feminist literary theory as well as significant features of turn of the century French society Hawthorne arranges her approach to Rachilde around several defining events in the author's life including the controversial publication of Monsieur V nus with its presentation of sex reversals Weaving back and forth in time she is able to depict these moments in relation to Rachilde's life work and times and to illuminate nineteenth century publishing practices and rivalries including authorial manipulations of the market for sexually suggestive literature The most complete and accurate account yet written of this emblematic author Hawthorne's work is also the first to situate Rachilde in the broader social contexts and literary currents of her time and of our own *Le Spiritisme Devant La Science. Sharp, 2006-01-01 Secular Spirituality challenges the traditional dichotomy between Enlightenment reason and religion It follows French romantic socialists and spiritists search for a new spirituality based on reincarnation as a path to progress for individuals and society Leaders like Allan Kardec argued for social reform spiritist groups strove for equality and women mediums challenged gender roles Lynn L Sharp looks closely at what it meant to practice spiritism analysing the movement's social and political critique and explaining the popularity of the new belief She explores points of convergence and conflict in the interplay between spiritism and science spiritism and psychology and spiritism and the Catholic church to argue that the nineteenth century was not as disenchanted as has been thought Secular Spirituality successfully places spiritism within a larger cultural conversation going beyond the leaders of the movement to look at the way spiritism functioned for its followers
