Kissing Doorknobs Terry Spencer Hesser, 1999-11-09 During her preschool years Tara Sullivan lived in terror that something bad would happen to her mother while they were apart In grade school she panicked during the practice fire drills Practice for what Tara asked For the upcoming disaster that was bound to happen Then at the age of 11 it happened Tara heard the phrase that changed her life Step on a crack break your mother s back Before Tara knew it she was counting every crack in the sidewalk Over time Tara s quirks grew and developed arranging her meals on plates nonstop prayer rituals until she developed a new ritual wherein she kissed her fingers and touched doorknobs

Freedom from the Known J. Krishnamurti, 2024-10-17 Embark on a profound journey of self discovery with J Krishnamurti s Freedom from the Known This enlightening work invites you to break free from the shackles of societal expectations and become the true architect of your own destiny Krishnamurti delves into the essence of human disorder revealing that our inner turmoil often stems from living according to the dictates of others rather than our own authentic selves In his most thought provoking style

Krishnamurti illuminates the path to immediate and radical freedom He demonstrates how transforming our inner world can reshape our relationships and the very structure of society This vital book underscores the urgent need for change and the boundless possibilities that arise when we recognize our own potential for transformation Let Freedom from the Known guide you towards a deeper understanding of yourself and a liberated way of life A New Approach to Dementia Andrea Tales,Jan Kremlacek,Emma Richards,2025-06-20 A New Approach to Dementia Examining Sensory and Perceptual Impairment is a groundbreaking work which highlights the non memory impairments of the dementias to improve both early recognition of dementia and clinical diagnosis as well as interventions and care It focuses clinical attention on the significant evidence supporting the existence of many types of sensory and perception related changes abnormalities sometimes at the early stages of the disease and throughout its progression Providing a holistic overview of the field the book includes self reports of people with dementia and caregivers alongside an in depth discussion of the application of the findings about non memory impairments to clinical care and management It leads a movement to address the over focus on memory function in dementia and ageing arguing for the need to test sensory and perceptual abnormalities to improve clinical practice and research into and the care and support of people living with dementia and associated disorders With its mix of scientific and clinical and real life relevance this book is essential for clinicians and researchers specialising in ageing and dementia as well as carers working with people living with dementia and students of neuropsychology neurocognition medicine and health and social care HIV/AIDS Training Resource Kit Peace Corps (U.S.).
