popping bugs to bluegills during the frenzy of a willow fly hatch lying motionless on his back in muddy corn stubble as mallards warily circle his decoys savoring the sounds and scents of a moonlit summer night when smallmouth bass are on the prowl or issuing plaintive love calls to an amorous wild turkey gobbler the author's fascination with outdoor recreation never diminishes And as the reader quickly finds this fascination is contagious Along with the lightheartedness and rich humor in these pages there is an unmistakable love of the land and a deep concern for the endangered bond between nature and humankind Like the trout in the stream or the deer in the forest Venable suggests we are as much a product of the land as any living creature And what affects one for better or worse ultimately affects all
