Sir William Matthew Flinders Petrie

Matt Manuel Les Miserables:

Les Misérables Victor Hugo, 2013-11-07 A brilliant modern translation by Christine Donougher of Victor Hugo's thrilling masterpiece with an introduction by Robert Tombs This is the best translation of the novel available in English as recommended by David Bellos in The Novel of the Century Victor Hugo's tale of injustice heroism and love follows the fortunes of Jean Valjean an escaped convict determined to put his criminal past behind him But his attempts to become a respected member of the community are constantly put under threat by his own conscience and by the relentless investigations of the dogged policeman Javert It is not simply for himself that Valjean must stay free however for he has sworn to protect the baby daughter of Fantine driven to prostitution by poverty A magnificent achievement It reads easily sometimes racily and Hugo's narrative power is never let down An almost flawless translation which brings the full flavour of one of the greatest novels of the nineteenth century to new readers in the twenty first William Doyle Times Literary Supplement The year's most interesting publication from Penguin Classics was a new translation by Christine Donougher of the novel we all know as Les Misérables You may think that 1 300 pages is a huge investment of time when the story is so familiar but no adaptation can convey the addictive pleasure afforded by Victor Hugo's narrative voice by turns chatty crotchety buoyant and savagely ironical it's made to seem so contemporary and fresh in Donougher's rendering that the book has all the resonance of the most topical state of the nation novel Telegraph Christine Donougher's seamless and very modern translation of Les Misérables has an astonishing effect in that it reminds readers that Hugo was going further than any Dickensian lament about social conditions The Wretched touches the soul Herald Scotland Lin-Manuel Miranda

The March of Literature Ford Madox Ford, 1994. This 900-page survey of world literature, from Confucius to our own times, as the subtitle reads, was the last book written by Ford Madox Ford, one of the seminal figures of the modernist period. Written for general readers rather than scholars and first published in 1938, The March of Literature is a working novelist's view of what is valuable in literature and why. Convinced that scholars and teachers give a false sense of literature, Ford brings alive the pleasures of reading by writing about books he is passionate about. Beginning at the beginning with ancient Egyptian and

Chinese literature and the Bible Ford works his way through classical literature the writings of the Middle Ages the Renaissance continuing up to the major writers of his own day like Ezra Pound Henry James and Joseph Conrad With his encyclopedic reading and expertise in the techniques of writing Ford is a reliable and entertaining guide Ford also includes a chapter on publishers and booksellers noting the key roles they play in literature's existence Novelist Alexander Theroux Darconville's Cat An Adultery has written an insightful introduction for this reissue the first time this monumental book has been made available in paperback
