Health Promotion for People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Laurence Taggart, Wendy Cousins, 2014-01-16 People with learning disabilities are affected by significantly more health problems than the general population and are much more likely to have significant health risks Yet evidence suggests they are not receiving the same level of health education and health promotion opportunities as other members of society This important interdisciplinary book is aimed at increasing professional awareness of the importance of health promotion activities for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities Written by an international board of experts it is a thorough and comprehensive guide for students professionals and carers The book considers a variety of challenges faced by those with intellectual disabilities from physical illnesses such as diabetes epilepsy and sexual health issues through to issues such as addiction mental health and ageing Contributors Jim Blair Penny Blake Malin Broberg Michael Brown Eddie Chaplin Bob Davies Gillian Eastgate Paul Fleming Dora Fisher Linda Goddard Tamar Heller John Heng Thanos Karatzias Mike Kerr Nick Lennox Tadhg MacIntyre Beth Marks Jane McCarthy Judith Moyle Karen Nankervis Ruth Northway Joseph O Grady Renee Proulx Janet Robertson Cathy Ross Jasmina Sisirak Eamonn Slevin David S Stewart William F Sullivan Beverley Temple Hana Vlkov Henny van Schroyen Stein Lantman de Valk I highly recommend this book to anyone working directly with people with an intellectual disability as well as professionals

academics and students who strive to promote issues and improve the lives of people with intellectual disabilities and their families Agnes Lunny OBE Chief Executive of Positive Futures Northern Ireland The editors and authors have done practitioners a great favour in bringing together in one volume a comprehensive account of how children and adults with intellectual disabilities can be supported to lead healthier lives Roy McConkey Professor of Developmental Disabilities University of Ulster Northern Ireland This timely and important book synthesises current knowledge about health promotion interventions for people with intellectual disabilities Written by leading researchers and practitioners it should be on the bookshelves of everyone concerned with addressing the stark inequalities in health experienced by people with intellectual disabilities around the world Eric Emerson Professor of Disability Population Health University of Sydney Australia and Emeritus Professor of Disability and Health Research Lancaster University UK This book is current and different from other textbooks I have used before The book is pitched at a very easy to understand level and any healthcare professional or student working with people with intellectual and developmental disabilities can use it The content is very up to date and relevant The use of comprehensive authors with differing backgrounds demonstrates the textbook has a wide range of expertise and knowledge packed into it that makes the book very relevant learning disabilities practice I will definitely be recommending this textbook to undergraduate nursing students in Learning Disabilities Dorothy Kupara Lecturer in Learning Disabilities Nursing University of West London

Teaching Secondary School Literacies With Ict Monteith, Moira, 2004-12-01 This work seeks to offer teachers a baseline from which to consider the application of ICT in raising and widening literacy achievements within the classroom It also looks at the gap between mass and total literacy a gap that so far defies closure American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Corporate Governance 1e Steen Thomsen, Martin

Canyon, 2012-04-16 This exciting new text provides a complete introduction to Corporate Governance It deals with the control and direction of companies by boards owners and company law and also looks at the mechanisms of governance and the different governance systems around the world Part 1 is a non technical overview of the relevant theories governance mechanisms and the country models Part 2 looks at some of the most important governance mechanisms in detail Part 3 studies individual international corporate governance systems Part 4 wraps up with a discussion on governance practices

EBOOK: Developing Interactive Teaching and Learning using the IWB Sara Hennessy, Paul Warwick, 2013-10-16 Do your students tune out from the IWB No matter how whizzy you make the technology do you have trouble engaging them Would you like some ideas to support a more interactive approach to using the IWB so that your students are more motivated and involved in your lessons Interactive Whiteboards IWBs are now found in the majority of UK classrooms and many teachers are highly technically competent with this technology Yet there is a need to develop expertise that capitalizes on such advanced technological equipment as an effective teaching and learning tool The aim of this resource is to support a more interactive approach to using the IWB especially in whole class teaching Research into classroom practices shows that more interactive approaches in particular engaging pupils in dialogue and discussion promote better learning This resource offers practical support and examples that help develop teaching practices that are more productive for learning focused around the use of the IWB This teacher resource has three key elements The Professional Development Resource takes you through discussion reflection and practical activities that focus on dialogue and the use of the IWB The Reader explores key issues related to use of the IWB in primary and secondary classrooms and directly supports the Professional Development Resource The Resource Bank offers video examples sample classroom activities explanatory screenshots and IWB lesson templates all available online Together with its website containing the resource bank this text is an essential toolkit for trainee and qualified teachers as well as senior leadership teams I fully recommend this set of extremely useful material containing a strong classroom voice endorsed by authoritative academic researchers Teachers will be drawn to this material and will be able to review their own practice reflect on the centrality of classroom spoken interactions and investigate how best to use the expensive item of technology on the wall to get the very best from their investment The blend of resources ideas and readings coupled with the video clips will provide a wealth of material to do just that It will prove very useful for teachers with any length of experience from those who might want to take a fresh look at their classroom practice to those new to the profession I will certainly draw from this in my CPD training with school staff Sally Elding Senior Adviser Primary Elearning Team The ICT Service Cambridgeshire This book ensures that interactivity in the classroom does not just mean the casual interaction of students with software Instead the authors show how to combine two very powerful tools the IWB and talk to create an effective and inclusive learning environment Chapters draw on classroom settings to show how use of the IWB can be enhanced by a focus on the quality of the talk that goes on between students and between teacher and learners Authors use practical experience to highlight the things that make the difference to the use of the IWB for example the establishment of exploratory dialogue the thoughtful organisation of group work and the creation of straightforward but stimulating IWB resources In addition the text provides clear guidance for teachers on how and why to raise student awareness of the importance of their discussion when making or considering digital artefacts There is a strong focus on ensuring that both students and teachers understand best use of the IWB and that contexts for learning are provided which really merit discussion The Teacher Development section considers use of the IWB in a dialogic classroom and shows how best practice can be achieved with useful resources and a format for reviewing own learning The Reader section provides insight into the aspects of talk that fit together to generate a dialogic classroom context and crucially shows how use of the IWB is both enhanced by dialogue and contributes to students capacity to take part in learning dialogues with one another The Resource Bank draws on a range of classroom contexts providing examples to support teachers as they create their own lesson plans and ideas The text is accessible and interesting with complex ideas clearly explained and the book is readily navigated This book will enable teachers to plan for dialogue based on the motivating and interesting features of the IWB In particular it provides guidance for student use of the IWB and creation of own resources tailored to learning needs Teachers who wish to have a focus on dialogue will find here a theoretically based practical approach to ensuring that their students really benefit from interactivity with the IWB and with each other Dr Lyn Dawes Educational Consultant This valuable resource provides both a theoretical framework and pedagogic guidance to use the interactive whiteboard to its full potential with learners of all ages Written by established classroom practitioners and academic researchers it provides a set of resources which are grounded in the reality of classroom life but underpinned by academic rigour which make it useful to both student and experienced teachers alike Professor Gary Beauchamp Professor of Education and Director of Research School of Education Cardiff Metropolitan University UK Contributors Lloyd Brown Simon Knight Caroline Neale Diane Rawlins Rupert Wegerif EBOOK: An Introduction to Human Resource Management BLOISI, WENDY, 2006-12-16 EBOOK An Introduction to Human Resource Management Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1974
