Polish Cinema in a Transnational Context Ewa Mazierska, Michael Goddard, 2014 This volume introduces a novel treatment of Polish cinema by discussing its international reception performance co productions and subversive migr auteurs such as Andrzej Zulawski and Walerian Borowczyk The opening up of Poland economically and politically to global influences after the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 coupled with the rise of transnational approaches to the study of film presents ideal conditions for examining Polish cinema from a transnational vantage point Yet not only have studies of Polish cinema remained largely within a national framework but Polish cinema as well as many other Eastern European cinemas has been virtually excluded from new research in transnational cinema Polish Cinema in a Transnational Context addresses this lacuna in film studies offering extended analysis of this national cinema s global influence Contributors assess the reception of

Polish films in Europe and North America Polish international coproductions the presence of Polish performers in foreign films and the works of subversive migr auteurs like Andrzej Zulawski and Walerian Borowczyk The collection presents familiar films and filmmakers in a new and revealing light while also focusing on lesser known filmmakers and aspects of Polish cinema The resulting volume moves the discussion beyond the border of Polish national belonging Contributors Peter Hames Darragh O Donoghue Helena Goscilo Dorota Ostrowska Charlotte Govaert Eva N ripea Izabela Kalinowska Ewa Mazierska Alison Smith Lars Kristensen Jonathan Owen Michael Goddard Robert Murphy Kamila Kuc Elzbieta Ostrowska Ewa Mazierska is professor of film studies at the University of Central Lancashire Michael Goddard is senior lecturer in media at the University of Salford

Reel Women Jane Sloan, 2007-03-26 In the last several decades the number of films featuring female protagonists has increased significantly Many of these films reflect the vast cultural and sociological changes that have taken place since the early 1960s highlighting not only a wide spectrum of female characters depicted onscreen but the creative work of women behind the camera as well In Reel Women An International Directory of Contemporary Feature Films about Women media librarian Jane Sloan has assembled an impressive list of more than 2400 films from nearly 100 countries that feature female protagonists Each entry includes a brief description of the film and cites key artistic personnel particularly female directors producers and screenwriters involved in its production Reel Women also contains a critical survey in which Sloan charts the changes women have undergone both on screen and off as moviemaking and audience sensibilities have evolved in the last forty plus years Listing many more films on the subject of women than can be found in any other source this reference brings together important titles from area studies and genre markets along with titles associated with women s cinema and feminist film In addition to title and actor indexes the book contains a subject index that provides detailed access to place names historical characters time periods and storylines as well as the backgrounds religious racial and ethnic of the main characters This directory is an ideal reference tool for researchers studying the evolution of female characters in films around the world from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe It is also a resource for casual viewers who are looking for films that reflect the diversity of women s roles that can be found in independent and national cinemas as well as commercial blockbusters

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège,2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard Journal 2016 janvier juin première partie Patrick Sansano,2016-07-13 Suite du journal intime de Patrick Sansano après les années 1972 1973 et 2015 Cette première partie de l'année 2016 révèle un style plus détaillé et approfondi que ses précédents journaux Ecran,1979 The French Film Musical Phil Powrie,Marie Cadalanu,2020-09-17 Like many national cinemas the French cinema has a rich tradition of film musicals beginning with the advent of sound to the present This is the first book to chart the development of the French film musical The French film musical is remarkable for its breadth and variety since the 1930s although it flirts with the Hollywood musical in the 1930s and again in the 1950s it has very distinctive forms rooted in the traditions of French chanson Defining it broadly as films attracting audiences principally because of musical performances often by well known singers Phil Powrie and Marie Cadalanu show how the genre absorbs two very different traditions with the advent of sound European operetta and French chanson inflected by American jazz

1930 1950 As the genre matures operetta develops into big budget spectacles with popular tenors and revue films also showcase major singers in this period 1940 1960 Both sub genres collapse with the advent of rock n roll leading to a period of experimentation during the New Wave 1960 1990 The contemporary period since 1995 renews the genre returning nostalgically both to the genre s origins in the 1930s and to the musicals of Jacques Demy but also hybridising with other genres such as the biopic and the documentary
