Mignonne Breier,Angelique Wildschut,2006 Many of the goals of South Africa s new democracy depend on the production of professionals who have not only the knowledge and skills to make our country globally competitive but also a commitment to working and living here Despite numerous reforms the South African health system ten years into democracy remains divided first world private care that ranks with middle income countries internationally at the one end and at the other extreme in the rural public sector in particular conditions that are superior only to the poorest of African countries Much work has been done to change medical school curricula in line with the primary health care focus of government policy and international trends towards problem based learning The student profile in medical schools is now not only more representative of the demographics of South Africa but also reveals a significant increase in female students Whether these students will stay in the country after graduating and serve where they are needed most remains to be seen Publisher s website Language Contact. Volume 2 Jeroen Darquennes,Joseph C. Salmons,Wim Vandenbussche,2025-04-21 Targeting a full range of students and scholars this volume provides a total of 50 chapters illustrating the linguistic dynamics and the dynamics of inter individual and societal language contact as well as the dynamics of multidisciplinary language contact studies Fueled by a wealth of data from a rich variety of contact situations its geographically balanced case studies are governed by the triangulation between a focus on language structure and change a sincere drive of sociopolitical and academic agency and the confrontation with an everyday reality that can be unkind to and ignorant of those two factors The volume clearly demonstrates the social relevance of our trade in a time burdened with ecolinguistic challenges

Investigating Corruption and White-collar Crime in South African Higher Education Bethuel Sibongiseni Ngcamu,2025-10-16 Using an interpretivist approach this qualitative volume interrogates instances of corruption and white collar crime prevalent in South African higher education institutions and suggests pathways for the proactive detection and prevention of corrupt practices Contextualizing the author s practical experiences gained in the higher education sector over the past two decades this book employs an ethnographical method to explore the complexity of university systems structures and functions that make South Africa s formerly disadvantaged universities more susceptible to corruption In the midst of highly contested divisive and highly politicized ways of reporting corruption in the media chapters provide critical analyses guided by scientific approaches robust data sets and qualitative face to face interviews to underpin the reliability of proposed policy amendments intended to detect and prevent corruption and white collar crime as well as the suggested closure of loop holes that make the sector vulnerable to and known for a high level of criminality Making a substantial contribution to broader academic debate around corruption and university management internationally this book will be of interest to researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education higher education management and administration and education policy and politics Policy makers in both the Global South and North are also likely to benefit from this book

Gideon,Odhiambo, George,Marandi, Pegah,2023-09-25 Teacher education is a known variable that impacts the quality of teaching and schooling yet while research on practices in teaching and teacher education abound in other contexts there seems to be no comprehensive reference work on teaching and teacher education in Africa With Africa and the diaspora boasting rich diverse political and educational contexts and practices this gap in knowledge requires that attention be focused on investigating issues that shape the pace course and direction of teaching and teacher education in these contexts Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa facilitates scholarly discussions among scholars and practitioners about practices innovations and future possibilities for educating the next generation of competent students and teachers in Africa Covering topics such as educational reforms equity career progression and curriculum development this major reference work is ideal for administrators industry professionals researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students      The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav

Visser,2016-09-20 The publication provides the first comprehensive text that reflects on a century of the development of geography as an academic discipline at South African universities The book showcases a broad and textured review of South Africa s geography departments their staff members their times and the different Geographies they engaged in The book lays the foundation from which more expansive individual departmental histories can be written in the future Teacher Education and Institutional Change in South Africa Glenda Kruss,2008 In 1994 the South African teacher education landscape was fragmented across a wide variety of institutional sites Proceedings of the 10th Focus Conference (TFC 2023) Manyane Makua,Mariam Akinlolu,Mashango Sithole,Phiwayinkosi Gumede,Cebo Nyondo,Ntombikhona Khuzwayo,Mandlenkosi Mhlongo,2023-11-03 This is an open access book The 2023 Focus Conference will focus on Goal Four Quality Education of the United Nations UN Sustainable Development Goals SGD Goal Four is seized with providing equal access for all women and men to affordable and quality technical vocational and tertiary education including university Quality education in this context means the ability to function provide and derive value in society The theme of the conference is therefore coined as The Role of Higher Education in the Attainment of Sustainable Quality Education Through this theme the conference will provide a space for participants to share practical knowledge experiences and possible solutions to the myriad of problems that confront the higher education sector Universities are often thought of as ivory towers far removed from the realities that confront global societies To compound this higher education is increasingly being questioned for its relevance in providing practical and innovative solutions to existing societal problems Such questions often navigate around the relevance of the academic programmes being offered curriculum the capacity of staff employability of graduates and generally the ability of these institutions to understand why they exist Indeed higher education s role in creating a sustainable future will presumably take on greater importance as the world continues to become increasingly globalised and interdependent Education in a New South Africa Robert J. Balfour,2015-09-24 A collaborative series with the University of Cambridge Faculty of Education highlighting leading edge research across Teacher Education International Education Reform and Language Education Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela,2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education
