Kevern,2025-05-27 The dread of dementia has a unique hold over us because dementia seems to eat away at what makes us human If we lose our capacity to remember to think to act and even to speak what is left of us And where is the God who promised to be with us These are profound theological questions that go beyond a need for better pastoral care or more welcoming churches they hold up a mirror to what we really believe about human beings about God and about dementia itself The purpose of this book is to explore what these questions have to teach us by reflecting theologically on the faith journey of people who live with dementia It is a personal theological pilgrimage digging down into the theological meaning of dementia itself looking for hidden pearls of insight But it is also an attempt to look past the details to see the big picture of God s grace and faithfulness embodied in the person and life of the crucified and risen Christ It will speak not just to people who are challenged or troubled by dementia but to anybody seeking to grapple with their faith in challenging times Being You

Collier's, 1953-10 The Mad Fisherman Charlie Moore, Charles Salzberg, 2009-05-26

Charlie Moore was married with two kids and one on the way when his Massachusetts bait and tackle shop sank without a trace. A skilled fisherman and a savvy entrepreneur trained in his father's cigar shop, Charlie decided to support his family by starring on his own TV fishing show. After all, the ones playing on the TV in Charlie's shop all day had one thing in common: they were dull. As a rule, people called Charlie many things but never ever dull. In fact, when he told friends about his television idea, they called him crazy. Today everyone calls him the Mad Fisherman. The Mad Fisherman is the incredible story of how Charlie cold-called his way into doing short spots for no money for a regional outdoors show while working odd jobs to pay for diapers. When the TV station refused to pay up, once the show was a hit, he hooked show sponsors himself, turning Charlie Moore Outdoors into a profitable enterprise. Charlie's success opened doors at ESPN and gave birth to the groundbreaking Beat Charlie Moore, an entirely new kind of outdoors show on which Charlie goes mano a mano with pro fishermen and celebrities alike. Charlie's very competitive, but he still pays more attention to amusing his audience than beating his competitors. But he usually does both anyway. Guest fishermen on Charlie's boat have included NFL quarterback Drew Bledsoe, Massachusetts governor and presidential hopeful Mitt Romney, who waterskiied off the back of Charlie's boat; Rickey Medlocke of Lynyrd Skynyrd; UConn basketball coach Jim Calhoun; Ted Nugent; Adam West; TV's Batman; and Darryl McDaniels of Run-DMC. No matter how famous they are on dry land, they turn into ordinary guys when Charlie hands them a fishing pole. Well, except Ted Nugent. With unflagging energy, a wild sense of humor, and a sheer love of the outdoors, Charlie Moore entertains and amuses a million and a half people every week. My Walk with My Sister Karen Boothe, 2019-01-03

Everyone has noticed changes in Brenda. She has become more demanding, caring less about her appearance and not letting anyone come to her house, alienating friends. Then the call comes from her employer: Brenda didn't show up for work today. Brenda has always received awards for never missing work. Her family had to break into her home when she didn't answer the door. She was lying on the bed and acted as if nothing was wrong. What they discovered when they opened the door was breathtaking. She has been hoarding, and her home was filthy. But that's not the only discovery: Brenda was diagnosed at age fifty-six with a rare brain disorder, Frontotemporal Degeneration (FTD). This disease is so rare that it is hard to diagnose, hard to treat, hard to deal with, and hard to pronounce, even harder to accept. All cases of FTD present differently. Treatment is different for each patient, so no one can tell you what to expect. Her sister becomes her primary caregiver. Along with help from family and friends, they walked the journey of frontotemporal degeneration together. Trial and error became the norm. They learned to love and accept the new Brenda, one who is childlike, loving, and happy. Our hope is that this book will give comfort to families who have a family member or friend with FTD. Please know that your journey is never walked alone. God is ever present and sometimes sends a sign that he loves you and everything is going to be okay.
