Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2001 A Perfect Storm Milton Shain,2015-11-09 The interwar years were a tumultuous time in South Africa The effects of the worldwide economic slump gave rise to a huge number of poor whites and fed the growth of a militant and aggressive Afrikaner nationalism that often took its lead from Nazi Germany For a great number of whites both English and Afrikaans speakers the Jew was an unwelcome and disturbing addition to society A Perfect Storm explores the growth of antisemitism in South Africa between 1930 and 1948 within the broader context of South African politics and culture A Perfect Storm reveals how the radical right s malevolent message moved from the margins to the centre of political life how demagoguery was able to gain traction in society and how vulgar antisemitism seeped into mainstream politics with real and lasting consequences Milton Shain South Africa s leading scholar of modern Jewish history carefully documents the rise of the Jewish Question in this period detailing the growth of overtly fascist organisations such as the Greyshirts the New Order and the Ossewa Brandwag Central to his analysis is the National Party s use of antisemitism to win electoral advantage and mobilise Afrikaners behind the nationalist project The party contributed to the climate of hostility that resulted in the United Party government drastically curtailing the numbers of Jews admitted as immigrants Indeed some of its most virulent antisemites were accorded high office after 1948 when the National Party came to power

The Commonwealth, South Africa and Apartheid
Stuart Mole, 2023-05-31 This book explores the role of the modern Commonwealth in the international campaign against apartheid in South Africa Spanning the period of South Africa s apartheid state from its foundation in 1948 until its ending in April 1994 the author demonstrates that after the 1960 Sharpeville massacre and South Africa s subsequent exclusion from the Commonwealth the organisation was able to become both pathfinder and interlocutor on the road to South Africa s freedom As well as South Africa s ejection from the Commonwealth apartheid s increasing isolation was sustained by the Commonwealth s pioneering work in boycotting apartheid sport as well as campaigning to stop arms sales It also played an important role in internationalising economic and financial sanctions credited by some as the final nail in apartheid s coffin and was able to make an important and distinctive contribution to the transition to democracy At the same time critical debates within the Commonwealth about racial and political equality transformed the association from a docile post imperial organisation led by the UK and in its own interests to a modern multiracial North South forum for reconciling global difference and overcoming the legacies of colonialism This comprehensive and authoritative account of the Commonwealth s engagement with apartheid South Africa is intended for all those who study and research the modern Commonwealth its structure and influence and for those with a general interest in contemporary post war history

Afrikaner and black nationalists and industrial unrest The century ended as it started with another war This was a flash point of the Cold War which embraced more than just the subcontinent and lasted a long thirty years The outcome included the final withdrawal of foreign troops from southern Africa the withdrawal of South African forces from Angola and Namibia and the transfer of political power away from a white elite to a broad based democracy This book is the first study of the South African armed forces as an institution and of the complex roles that these forces played in the wars rebellions uprisings and protests of the period It deals in the first instance with the evolution of South African defense policy the development of the armed forces and the people who served in and commanded them It also places the narrative within the broader national past to produce a fascinating study of a century in which South Africa was uniquely embroiled in three total wars Who's who of Southern Africa ,2000 Vols for 1967 70 include as a section Who s who of Rhodesia Mauritius Central and East Africa
