Borderless Africa Francis Mangeni, Andrew Mold, 2014-04-18 The African Continental Free Trade Area established in 2018 represented a monumental step forward for Africa in terms of meeting longstanding aspirations for greater economic and political integration But it has nonetheless been met with scepticism in some quarters both within the continent and beyond Borderless Africa makes the case for the AfCFTA in an accessible and compelling way without shying away from technical and academic debates Francis Mangeni and Andrew Mold take us on a journey through the different dimensions and implications of the AfCFTA the largest free trade zone in the world starting with its underlying economic rationale Pointing to the numerous historical examples of successful regional integration they argue that the African continent will need to take on board such lessons as the agreement is implemented They discuss too the more controversial elements of the AfCFTA including the freedom of movement protocol contending that this should not be seen as an optional extra but as an intrinsic part of the accord Also exploring the role of external partners in the construction of an economically stronger more united Africa this fascinating study reveals how the AfCFTA is contributing to sustainable development across the continent

The New Politics of Regionalism Ulf Engel, Heidrun Zinecker, Frank Mattheis, Antje Dietze, Thomas Plötze, 2016-10-04 This edited volume approaches regionalism as one potential pattern in a changing global order Since the end of the Cold War different forms of territorialization have emerged and we are confronted with an increasing number and variety of actors that are establishing regional projects This volume offers an innovative contribution to the study of this new complexity by exploring constellations of regional actors spatial scales and imaginations beyond state centred perspectives as well as on multiple often overlapping levels The chapters analyse the emergence trajectories and outcomes of regionalisms from the perspective of the Global South specifically concentrating on regional projects in Latin America and Africa but also in the Asia Pacific They attempt to identify the specific conditions and junctures of different forms of region making in their external global and internal local national dimensions The volume also places special emphasis on interactions spatial entanglements and comparisons between regionalisms in different parts of the world By expanding beyond the perspective of North South transfers this book seeks to better understand the dynamics and diversity of interregional interactions This volume will appeal to scholars of global studies international political economy international relations human geography and development studies as well as area studies specialists who focus on Latin America and Africa The Geography of

and Emerging Economies P. B. Anand, Shailaja Fennell, Flavio Comim, 2021 Ever since Jim O'Neill at Goldman Sachs coined the term BRICS in 2001 there have been many different assessments of these major emerging economies with some even proclaiming that the promise of the BRICS comprising Brazil Russia India China and South Africa is over However the so called arranged marriage still seems to be working well with the club having become a formal international forum with summit declarations ministerial meetings and numerous BRICS wide fora Is this euphoria misplaced Is there a BRICS model of economic and human development Are inequalities increasing and is this the denouncement of the economic successes The Handbook of BRICS and Emerging Economies presents a comprehensive and multi faceted analysis of the BRICS countries and other emerging economies exploring their economic social environmental and governance dimensions and other challenges It brings together multi disciplinary perspectives from more than fifty authors to examine how education contributed to the emergence of BRICS how BRICS are impacting African economies and how other emerging economies including Chile Mexico Turkey and others in Africa and Central Asia compare It observes the impact of governance challenges both within individual countries and in the forum for co operation amongst them what issues related to gender and identity based violence are prevalent and what the security implications are and the role of BRICS is in contributing to peace keeping operations Practising Empowerment in Post-Apartheid South Africa Agatha Herman, 2017-07-28 Despite the promise and optimism surrounding the post apartheid transition South African society continues to be highly racialised in its discourses identities and practices even within the very strategies that aim to change power relations and heal racialised divisions Renowned for its brutal past practices the wine industry in South Africa has long been associated with white power and black exploitation and remains dogged by continuing allegations of poor working conditions and labour abuses Through in depth longitudinal fieldwork this book considers how different ethics interact and draws attention to the positive changes and continuing development challenges faced in South Africa Situating practice at its heart it brings a novel everyday and micro scale dimension to understandings of empowerment in the post apartheid South African wine industry It develops a critical analysis of the interplay between practice as scaled and inherently spatial and discourse to conceptualise how big concepts such as empowerment are articulated materialised and experienced at the ground level Through this it gives voices to the marginalised who experience empowerment setting these within the context of their relations with the other stakeholders who shape this engagement This book contributes to broader critical social science debates around ethical development and questions of power and empowerment in development interventions This is critical to reducing the disconnection between policy aims and realities within development and empowerment initiatives as well as enabling ethical commodities to be strategic in retaining their appeal throughout their networks In India and East Africa E-Indiya nase East Africa Davidson Don Tengo Jabavu, Tina Steiner, Mhlobo Jadezweni, Catherine Higgs, Evan M. Mwangi, 2020-02-01 A politician's journey to bring home Mahatma Gandhi's teachings home to South Africa in the wake of WWII In November 1949

Davidson Don Tengo D D T Jabavu the South African politician Methodist lay preacher and retired professor of African languages and Latin at Fort Hare University in the Eastern Cape set out on a four month trip to attend the World Pacifist Meeting in India The conference brought together delegates from over thirty countries to reflect on how Mahatma Gandhi s life and teachings could inform pacifist work in the post World War II era Jabavu wrote an isiXhosa account of his journey up the east coast of Africa and to different parts of India which was first published in 1951 by Lovedale Press His narrative contains wide ranging reflections on the fauna and flora of the changing landscape on intriguing social interactions during his travels and on the conference itself where he considered what lessons Gandhian principles might yield for oppressed South Africans engaged in struggles for freedom and dignity He incorporates accounts of chance meetings with important figures of post independence India and of the anti colonial struggle in East Africa as well as with members of the American civil rights movement His commentary on non violent resistance and on the dangers of nationalism when coupled with militarism and racism enriches the existing archive of intellectual and political exchange between Africa and India from a black South African perspective This new edition includes Jabavu s travelogue in the original isiXhosa with an English translation by the late anthropologist Cecil Wele Manona Tina Steiner s introductory chapter examines the networks of international solidarity and friendship that Jabavu helped to strengthen in the course of his travels A chapter by Mhlobo W Jadezweni whose updating of the original isiXhosa orthography has made Jabavu s text accessible to new generations of readers considers the richness of Jabavu s isiXhosa style as a contribution to the archive of great African language literature Catherine Higgs provides biographical sketches of D D T Jabavu and Cecil Wele Manona which situate this travelogue within the broader context of their lives Evan M Mwangi s Afterword is a reflection on the historical and political significance of making African language texts available to readers across Africa

China's Backyard Jason Morris-Jung, 2018-05-24 In this multi disciplinary and multi sited volume the authors challenge reductionist and oversimplifying approaches to understanding China s engagement with Southeast Asia Productively viewing these interactions through a e resource lense the editor has transcended disciplinary and area studies divides in order to assemble a dynamic and diverse group of scholars with extensive experience across Southeast Asia and in China all while bringing together perspectives from resource economics policy analysis international relations human geography political ecology history sociology and anthropology The result is an important collection that not only offers empirically detailed studies of Chinese energy and resource investments in Southeast Asia but which attends to the complex and often ambivalent ways in which such investments have become both a source of anxiety and aspiration for different stakeholders in the region

Socio-Spatial Small Town Dynamics in South Africa Ronnie Donaldson, 2023-07-14 This book explores small town geographical aspects by approaching them from a socio spatial perspective The contributions included in this book delve into a range of topics that have not been commonly studied before such as white privilege neglect of municipal infrastructure collaborative governance livelihoods in small scale fisheries housing provision well being in mining towns studentification in rural contexts election trends and the historical development of small town spas The book adopts a socio spatial point of view providing a holistic understanding of the interplay between social and spatial factors within selected small town case studies This approach sheds light on the socio economic political and cultural dynamics that shape small towns This localized perspective allows for a more targeted analysis of issues and potential solutions taking into account the specific historical cultural and political contexts of small town South Africa The edited volume serves as a valuable resource for academics policymakers practitioners and anyone interested in understanding and improving small towns in South Africa

Women and Photography in Apartheid South Africa Marie Meyerding, 2025-04-29 Tracing the lives and works of five women in four case studies author Marie Meyerding examines the representation of women in the field of photography in South Africa in the second half of the twentieth century All of them are critically understudied with no existing scholarship dedicated exclusively to their photographic contributions Focusing on the representation of women on two different levels as agents behind the camera and as subjects in photographs it showcases women photographers portraying their female contemporaries and analyses to what extent they adhered to or subverted common forms of gender representation In recuperating their forgotten archives the book argues that none of these women are marginal figures but rather that each of them played a leading role in the field of photography in their own time The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography gender studies intersectionality and African studies

Beyond Energy Jacopo Maria Pepe, 2017-11-22 Jacopo Maria Pepe examines the rapid development of non energy transport infrastructure in the broader Eurasian space By doing so the author considers the ongoing structural transformation of the Eurasian continent against the backdrop of deepening commercial interconnectivity in Eurasia into broader areas of trade supported by the rapid development of rail connectivity He frames this process in a long wave historical analysis and considers in detail the geopolitical geo economic and theoretical implications of deepening physical connectivity for the relationships among China Russia Central Asia and the European Union Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past
