Geography Paper Memorandum:

Educational Reconstruction Gary McCulloch, 2013-09-05 This book presents a clear overview of the debates that surrounded the making of the 1944 Act which affected every aspect of education in this country It gives a detailed account of the tripartite divisions into three types of child that were sanctioned in the reforms of the 1940s At the same time it also emphasises the idea of education as a civic project which underlay the reforms and which was such an important part of their lasting authority The education policies of the past decade and the current attempts to shape a new education settlement need to be interpreted in a long term historical framework and in particular in relation to the aims and problems of the last great cycle of reform in the 1940s This book makes an important contribution to the development of such a framework and the social history of education policy in this country    The Aftermath of Partition in South Asia Gyanesh Kudaisya, Tan Tai Yong, 2004-03-01 This book draws upon new theoretical insights and fresh bodies of data to historically reappraise partition in the light of its long aftermath It uses a comparative approach by viewing South Asia in its totality rather than looking at it in narrow national terms As the first book to focus on the aftermath of partition it fills a distinctive niche in the study of contemporary South Asia    Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
