Urbanization with Chinese Characteristics: The Hukou System and Migration Kam Wing Chan, 2018-04-19 Many agree that rapid urbanization in China in the late 20th and early 21st centuries is a mega process significantly reshaping China and the global economy China's urbanization also carries a certain mystique which has long fascinated generations of scholars and journalists alike As it has turned out many of the asserted Chinese feats are mostly fancied claims or gross misinterpretations of statistics for example There does exist however an urbanization that displays rather uncommon Chinese characteristics that remain to inadequately understood Building on his three decades of careful research Professor Kam Wing Chan expertly dissects the complexity of China's hukou system migration urbanization and their interrelationships in this set of journal articles published in the last ten years These works range from seminal papers on Chinese urban definitions and statistics and broad perspective analysis of the hukou system of its first semi centennial to examinations of migration trends and geography and critical evaluations of China's 2014 urbanization blueprint and hukou reform plan This convenient assemblage contains many of Chan's recent important works Together they also form a relatively coherent set on this topic They are essential readings to anyone serious about gaining a true understanding of the prodigious urbanization in contemporary China      Urban Sustainability Transitions Niki Frantzeskaki, Vanesa Castán Broto, Lars Coenen, Derk Loorbach, 2017-06-14 The world's population is currently undergoing a significant transition towards urbanisation with the UN expecting that 70% of people globally will live in cities by 2050 Urbanisation has multiple political cultural environmental and economic dimensions that profoundly influence social development and innovation This fundamental long term transformation will involve the realignment of urban society s technologies and infrastructures culture and lifestyles as well as governance and institutional frameworks Such structural systemic realignments can be referred to as urban sustainability transitions fundamental and structural changes in urban systems through which persistent societal challenges are addressed such as shifts towards urban farming renewable decentralised energy systems and social economies This book provides new insights into how sustainability transitions unfold in different types of cities across the world and explores possible strategies for governing urban transitions emphasising the co evolution of material and institutional transformations in socio technical and socio ecological systems With case studies of mega cities such as Seoul Tokyo New York and Adelaide medium sized cities such as Copenhagen Cape Town and Portland and nonmetropolitan cities such as Freiburg Ghent and Brighton the book provides an opportunity to reflect upon the comparability and transferability of theoretical conceptual constructs and governance approaches across geographical contexts Urban Sustainability Transitions is key reading for students and scholars working in Environmental Sciences Geography Urban Studies Urban Policy and Planning Mega-Event Mobilities Noel B. Salazar, Christiane Timmerman, Johan Wets, Luana Gama Gato, Sarah Van den Broucke, 2016-12-01 Global sports events are rarely far from the public eye Such mega events are about much more than the sporting competitions themselves They entail global exposure and intense struggles by different stakeholders This is the first book to examine sports mega events from a mobilities perspective It analyses the mobile construction of global sports mega events and the role this plays in managing labour imaginaries policies and legacies In particular the book focuses on the tension between the various mobilities and immobilities that are implied in the process of constructing a mega event It seeks to uncover the ways in which an event is a series of fluid interactions that occur sequentially and simultaneously at multiple scales in diverse spheres of interaction Contributions explore the dynamics through which mega events occur revealing the textures and nuance of the complex systems that sustain them and the ways that events ramify throughout the international system

Young Women's Carceral Geographies Anna Schliehe, 2021-08-11 Interrogating conceptual ideas around power punishment and abandonment with specific reference to the experience of young women this book examines the particular challenges that young women face within the criminal justice system and traces their journeys in out and beyond confinement Doom Niall Ferguson, 2021-05-04 All disasters are in some sense man made Setting the annus horribilis of 2020 in historical perspective Niall Ferguson explains why we are getting worse not better at handling disasters Disasters are inherently hard to predict Pandemics like earthquakes wildfires financial crises and wars are not normally distributed there is no cycle of history to help us anticipate the next catastrophe But when disaster strikes we ought to be better prepared than the Romans were when Vesuvius erupted or medieval Italians when the Black Death struck We have science on our side after all Yet in 2020 the responses of many developed countries including the United States to a new virus from China were badly bungled Why did only a few Asian countries learn the right lessons from SARS and MERS While populist leaders certainly performed poorly in the face of the COVID 19 pandemic Niall Ferguson argues that more profound pathologies were at work pathologies already visible in our responses to earlier disasters In books going back nearly twenty years including Colossus The Great Degeneration and The Square and the Tower Ferguson has studied the foibles of modern America from imperial hubris to bureaucratic sclerosis and online fragmentation Drawing from multiple disciplines including economics cliodynamics and network science Doom offers not just a history but a general theory of disasters showing why our ever more bureaucratic and complex systems are getting worse at handling them Doom is the lesson of history that this country indeed the West as a whole urgently needs to learn if we want to handle the next crisis better and to avoid the ultimate doom of irreversible decline Displacement, Asylum and the City René Kreichauf, Birgit Glorius, 2023-05-22

This edited volume draws attention to the interlinked yet understudied relationship between the role of cities in dealing with international displacement and forced migration and the influence of forced migration in stimulating spatial societal and institutional transformations in and of cities In 2022 almost 84 million people worldwide were forcibly displaced More than two thirds of them reside in urban areas Displacement and forced migration are an urban experience and an urban story of those seeking protection This book helps us understanding the conditions of displaced population in cities and the way cities and urban actors respond to recent migration trends It applies an urban perspective to the analysis of migration processes and it provides insights into the urban governance of forced migration and asylum the production of spaces related to forced migration and the role of the displaced population as actors of urban change Thereby it covers a broad spectrum of topics including migrant dispersal welfare and social protection urban humanitarian policymaking and governance neighbourhood development migrant solidarity and refugee protest and new refugee and migrant destinations Given the increasing mobility and displacement of human populations this book provides a relevant prerequisite for readers interested in current urban forced migration and asylum trends and on the intersections of those topics The book will be of great value to researchers and academics of Geography Migration and Urban Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Urban Geography Deepening Neoliberalism, Austerity, and Crisis Julien Mercille, Enda Murphy, 2015-07-07

From bank bailouts to austerity Europe's and Ireland's response to the economic crisis has been engineered specifically to shift the burden of paying for the crisis onto ordinary citizens while investors financiers bankers and the privileged are protected The authors expose the class based nature of Ireland's crisis resolution Shifting Power in Asia-Pacific? Enrico Fels, 2016-11-03 This book investigates whether a power shift has taken place in the Asia Pacific region since the end of the Cold War By systematically examining the development of power dynamics in Asia Pacific it challenges the notion that a wealthier and militarily more powerful China is automatically turning the regional tides in its favour With a special emphasis on Sino US competition the book explores the alleged linkage between the regional distribution of relevant material and immaterial capabilities national power and the much cited regional power shift The book presents a novel concept for measuring power in international relations by outlining a composite index on aggregated power CIAP that includes 55 variables for 44 regional countries and covers a period of twenty years Moreover it develops a middle power theory that outlines the significance of middle powers in times of major power shifts By addressing political military and economic cooperation via a structured focused comparison and by applying a comparative historical analysis the book analyses in depth the bilateral relations of six regional middle powers to Washington and Beijing

Carceral Mobilities Jennifer Turner, Kimberley Peters, 2016-12-01 Mobilities research is now centre stage in the social sciences with wide ranging work that considers the politics underscoring the movements of people and objects critically examining a world that is ever on the move At first glance the words carceral and mobilities seem to sit uneasily together This book challenges the assumption that carceral life is characterised by a lack of movement Carceral Mobilities brings together contributions that speak to contemporary debates across carceral studies and mobilities research offering fresh insights to both areas by identifying and unpicking the manifold mobilities that shape and are shaped by carceral regimes It features four sections that move the reader through the varying typologies of motion underscoring carceral life tension circulation distribution and transition Each mobilities led section seeks to explore the politics encapsulated in specific regimes of carceral movement With contributions from leading scholars and a range of international examples this book provides an authoritative voice on carceral mobilities from a variety of perspectives including criminology sociology history cultural theory human geography and urban planning This book offers a first port of call for those examining spaces of detention asylum imprisonment and containment who are increasingly interested in questions of movement in relation to the management control and confinement of populations

Geography March Paper 2014: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
