Cross-Border Cooperation as Conflict Transformation Maria-Adriana Deiana,Milena Komarova,Cathal McCall,2022-02-27 Has European integration helped to build peace in Europe and its neighbourhood The book addresses this question through theoretically and empirically informed case studies that explore the successes of and the challenges to EU cross border cooperation as a tool for conflict transformation Conceptually the contributors link the question of transforming conflict to changing understandings of borders and bordering Empirically the contributions represent case studies of practices and discourses of EU sponsored cross border cooperation and challenges to it The case studies encompass the multiple geographical perspectives of the EU internal boundaries its sometimes disputed external borders and borders involving third countries From a thematic point of view the collection focuses on the intersection of two levels at which bordering processes unfold and are enacted the level of governance devolution and international intervention and that of grass roots or civil society efforts including cultural cooperation and artistic production The collection thus offers a kaleidoscopic view of border politics and conflict that zooms in and out of the EU frontiers and their geopolitics of peacebuilding security and cooperation The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Geopolitics

Sino-U.S. Energy Triangles David Zweig,Yufan Hao,2015-07-24 The remarkable performance of the Chinese economy in the last three decades has placed China at the centre of the world stage In 1993 China became a net importer of energy although it was not until the early 2000s that the world began to pay more attention to China s energy needs and its potential impact on the world With China s energy search occurring within a hegemonic global structure dominated by the United States the US watches with interest as China enhances its ties with energy rich states The book examines this triangular relationship and questions whether the US and China are in competition regarding access to the energy of a third state within the context of a potential power transition It includes case studies on China s energy relationship with countries such as Canada Australia Saudi Arabia Nigeria Brazil Kazakhstan Iran Sudan and Venezuela and aims to understand the way a rising power interacts with the existing leading power and the possible outcome of this competition The analytical framework employed helps the reader to understand not only the nature and pattern of triangles among US China and the Resource Rich States under resource diplomacy but also the salient features of US China competition around the world Making an impressive contribution to the literature in fields such as US China relations international relations Chinese foreign policy and global energy geopolitics this book will appeal to students and scholars of these subjects

Muslim Fashion Reina Lewis,2015-10-15 In the shops of London s Oxford Street girls wear patterned scarves over their hair as they cluster around makeup counters Alongside them hip twenty somethings style their head wraps in high black topknots to match their black boot cut trousers Participating in the world of popular mainstream fashion often thought to be the domain of the West these young Muslim women are part of an emergent cross faith transnational youth subculture of modest fashion In treating hijab and other forms of modest clothing as fashion Reina Lewis counters the overuse of images of veiled women as evidence in the prevalent suggestion that Muslims and Islam are incompatible with Western modernity Muslim Fashion contextualizes modest wardrobe styling within Islamic and global consumer cultures interviewing key players including designers bloggers shoppers store clerks and shop owners Focusing on Britain North America and Turkey Lewis provides insights into the ways young Muslim women use multiple fashion systems to negotiate religion identity and ethnicity

The Divided City and the Grassroots Giulia Carabelli,2018-03-14 Focusing on Mostar a city in Bosnia Herzegovina that became the epitome of ethnic divisions during the Yugoslav wars this cutting edge book considers processes of violent partitioning in cities Providing an in depth understanding of the social political and mundane dynamics that keep cities polarized it examines the potential that moments of inter ethnic collaboration hold in re imaging these cities as other than divided Against the backdrop of normalised practices of ethnic partitioning the book studies both planned and unplanned moments of disruption it looks at how networks of solidarity come into existence regardless of identity politics as well as the role of organised grassroots groups that attempt to create more inclusive and it critically engages with urban spaces of resistance Challenging the representation of the city as merely a site of ethnic divisions the author also explores the complexities arising from living in a city that validates its citizens solely through ethnicity Elaborating on the relationships between space culture and social change this book is a key read for scholars students and urban practitioners studying ethnically divided cities worldwide The Contemporary Challenges of African Development: Jean Philippe Azany Grah,2020-11-17 In 1963

there was a French agronomist named Ren Dumont who published a book False start in Africa in this book it explains the economic and development difficulties that Africa was facing so since then what is the real situation of Africa today The book is a theory led conceptual account of the contemporary challenges that face African Development and the factors that may interact and influence at the interface of Africa development African natural resources play vital roles in the world economic by providing the raw materials that most of the industrialized countries need for manufacturing goods and supplying services in every sector for economic growth and well being How come that Africa which is full of these natural resources can be the poorest continent Africa has steadily engaged in the challenges of the twenty first century which began at the beginning of liberalization which has increased economic integration even for less developed countries or LDCs to benefit However there are questions about the capabilities of countries belonging LDC especially Africa which has cast doubt on the continent s economic progress and development The growing list of number of key considerations and aspects that Africa needs to deal with is seemed to be impossible to know what to start Global Perspectives on Childhood Obesity Debasis
