China's peaceful rise Christopher Herrick,Zheya Gai,Surain Subramaniam,2016-09-26 Adopting a constructivist approach this book argues that China's prospects for achieving great power status peacefully depend more on perceptions of the country's development than on concrete measures of power or economic benefits Incorporating historical perceptions survey data and general analysis the authors explore Chinese foreign policies in international organisations international trade security relations and as a model for global governance as well as the reactions to those policies within the context of China's relations with Asian neighbours India Japan and the states of South east Asia existing international powers the European Union Russia and the United States and emergent trading partners Africa

The Knowledge Gap Natalie Wexler,2019-08-06 Essential reading for teachers education administrators and policymakers alike STARRED Library Journal The untold story of the root cause of America's education crisis It was only after years within the education reform movement that Natalie Wexler stumbled across a hidden explanation for our country's frustrating lack of progress when it comes to providing every child with a quality education The problem wasn't one of the usual scapegoats lazy teachers shoddy facilities lack of accountability It was something no one was talking about the elementary school curriculum's intense focus on decontextualized reading comprehension skills at the expense of actual knowledge In the tradition of Dale Russakoff's The Prize and Dana Goldstein's The Teacher Wars Wexler brings together history research and compelling characters to pull back the curtain on this fundamental flaw in our education system one that fellow reformers journalists and policymakers have long overlooked and of which the general public including many parents remains unaware But The Knowledge Gap isn't just a story of what schools have gotten so wrong it also follows innovative educators who are in the process of shedding their deeply ingrained habits and describes the rewards that have come along students who are not only excited to learn but are also acquiring the knowledge and vocabulary that will enable them to succeed If we truly want to fix our education system and unlock the potential of our neediest children we have no choice but to pay attention

Theologies on the Move Joerg Rieger,2020-10-13 Theologies on the Move Religion Migration and Pilgrimage in the World of Neoliberal Capital speaks to the reality that many religions have developed in motion with people exploring new boundaries migrating and being displaced Consequently major religious traditions form as they come into contact with other religions and cultures typically in situations of struggle and pressure Due to neoliberal capitalism more people are on the move today than ever before Most are driven by necessity migration due to violence poverty and perceived poverty others by religious quests that are often fueled by experiences of tension pilgrimage The chapters in this volume explore the complexity of these situations examining in detail how theology and religion shape up in various contexts on the move and investigating specific problems and tensions in order to suggest solutions alternatives and new possibilities

Commodification of Global Agrifood Systems and Agro-Ecology Yıldız Atasoy,2017-05-18 This book explores the shifting relations of food provisioning in Turkey from a comparative global political economy perspective It offers in depth ethnographic analysis interviews and historical insights into the ambiguities and diversities that simultaneously affect the changing conditions of food and agriculture in Turkey Specific issues examined include the commodification of land food and labour the expansion and deepening of industrial standardization the expansion of a supermarket model and concomitant changes in as well as the simultaneous co existence of traditional methods of production and marketing Contrasting observations are drawn from diverse locales to provide examples of convergence divergence and cohabitation in relation to transnationally advocated industrial models Commodification of Global Agrifood Systems and Agro Ecology employs a form of comparative perspective that allows the particular processes of restructuring of agrifood relations in Turkey to be simultaneously distinguished from yet related to changes taking place in global power dynamics Y ld z Atasoy explores agrifood transformation in Turkey with a unique approach that considers a plurality of intertwined normative influences ontological beliefs cultural religious narratives political struggles and critical interpretive positions Based on original research the book treats changes in food provisioning as an analytical thread capable of uncovering how the normative acceptability of capitalized agriculture and techno scientific innovation is entangled with processes of class formation growing inter capitalist competition and Islamic politics Such processes in turn frame income wealth generation landscape management agro ecological dynamics and labour practices as well as the taste and smell of place

The Perfect Dictatorship Stein Ringen, 2016-05-01 The Chinese system is like no other known to man now or in history This book explains how the system works and where it may be moving Drawing on Chinese and international sources on extensive collaboration with Chinese scholars and on the political science of state analysis the author concludes that under the new leadership of Xi Jinping the system of government has been transformed into a new regime radically harder and more ideological than the legacy of Deng Xiaoping China is less strong economically and more dictatorial politically than the world has wanted to believe By analysing the leadership of Xi Jinping the meaning of socialist market economy corruption the party state apparatus the reach of the party the mechanisms of repression taxation and public services and state society relations the book broadens the field of China studies as well as the fields of political economy comparative politics development and welfare state studies A new interpretation of the Chinese party state shows the advantage that derives from a comparative theorist looking at the Chinese system Tony Saich Harvard University This is an excellent book which asks important questions about China s future In a lively and persuasive manner the author vividly analyses key data in a comparative and theoretical manner Far and away the best introduction to how the CCP dictatorship works Edward Friedman University of Wisconsin Madison There is no lack of scholars and pundits abroad who tell us that dictatorship in China is for the greater good In a timely and engagingly written book Stein Ringen systematically demolishes all the components of this claim Frank Dik tter University of Hong Kong Stein Ringen shows how the Chinese state has used both fear and material inducements to build a controlocracy of a size and complexity unprecedented in world history Perfect Precarity in Contemporary Literature and Culture Emily J. Hogg, Peter Simonsen, 2021-04-22 The contemporary moment is characterized by precarity an expanding and intensifying vulnerability conditioned by political and economic structures Using literary and cultural texts to develop a nuanced and critical exploration of the concept of precarity that emphasizes its contemporary manifestations while also attending to its historical roots and existential dimensions this book examines the vulnerabilities which characterize our anxious existence including unemployment environmental crisis temporary contracts and patterns of migration Broken down into three key themes of feelings bodies and time Precarity in Contemporary Literature and Culture asks whether precarity can be considered a new phenomenon explores the relationship between precarity and traditional class politics analyses precarity s global dimensions and reflects on the links between contemporary crisis and underlying existential human vulnerability With reference to a wide range of forms such as contemporary realist science fiction and modernist novels film theatre and the lyric poem this book goes beyond one national context to consider texts from the US UK Germany and South Africa The Engineer, 2016 The Case against the Jones Act Colin Grabow, Inu Manak, 2020-06-11 How has an archaic burdensome law been able to persist for a century Passed in 1920 the Jones Act restricts the waterborne transport of cargo within the United States to vessels that are U S flagged U S crewed U S owned and U S built Meant to bolster the U S maritime sector this protectionist law has instead contributed to its decline As a result today s U S oceangoing domestic fleet numbers fewer than 100 ships Beyond leaving a shrunken and uncompetitive maritime sector in its wake the law has also inflicted considerable damage on the broader U S public that range from higher transportation costs to increased pollution The chapters in The Case against the Jones Act delve into some of the act s founding myths and the false narrative its supporters have helped to perpetuate The book evaluates the law s costs assesses its impact on businesses consumers and the environment and offers alternatives for a way forward The Jones Act s failures reveal that the status quo is untenable Contributors to this volume hope that the evidence presented will spark discussion about the Jones Act and lay the groundwork for the repeal or significant reform of this outdated law Inclusive Tourism Development Regina Scheyvens, Robin Biddulph, 2020-12-17 This comprehensive volume seeks out ways in which those who are typically marginalized by or excluded from tourism can be brought into the industry in ways that directly benefit them It addresses the central questions asked by an inclusive tourism approach Who is included On what terms With what significance Tourism is often understood and experienced as an exclusive activity accessible only to the relatively wealthy This volume seeks to counter that tendency by exploring how marginalized groups can gain more control over tourism The book starts by defining the concept of inclusive tourism and discussing seven different elements which might indicate inclusivity in tourism Research from a wide range of geographical contexts from Cambodia to Australia Sweden Turkey and Spain have been drawn upon to illustrate the need for more inclusive tourism The examples encompass the actions of a multinational tour operator hotel owners and social enterprises while also examining how to ensure tourism is accessible for those with disabilities Inclusive tourism is offered here as both an analytical concept and an aspirational ideal The authors hope that this book inspires a restless quest to find ways to include new actors and new places in tourism on terms that are equitable and sustainable The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies How to be an Academic Superhero Iain Hay, 2017-10-27 In universities across the world academics struggle to establish and sustain their careers while satisfying intensifying institutional demands Drawing from the author s decades of observation and experience in academia this exceptional book responds to the challenges of fostering and sustaining a successful academic career Multipolarization, South-South Cooperation and the Rise of Post-Hegemonic Governance Efe Can Gürcan, 2019-05-08 The crisis of Northern capitalism and failure of hegemonic global governance have created a facilitative environment for post hegemonic initiatives promoting South South cooperation Major Southern countries especially the BRICS have taken the lead in pushing for alternative governance mechanisms that are strongly articulated in the areas of economic financial cultural and defense cooperation This book focuses on the historical political economic and geopolitical context in which major Southern countries implement a post hegemonic agenda Providing a global and comprehensive perspective through a series of focused case studies from Europe Latin America Eurasia and Africa the author develops a new approach to the multipolarization of world politics based on global hegemony Highly recommended for scholars students and activists involved in global political economy regionalism studies and international development this book will be of interest to anyone seeking to develop their understanding of world politics and South South cooperation

Warriors and Wilderness in Medieval Britain Robin Melrose, 2017-02-07 Tracing the development of the King Arthur story in the late Middle Ages this book explores Arthur s depiction as a wilderness figure the descendant of the northern Romano British hunter warrior god The earliest Arthur was a warrior but in the 11th century Welsh tale Culhwch and Olwen he is less a warrior and more a leader of a band of rogue heroes The story of Arthur was popularized by Geoffrey of Monmouth in his Latin History of the Kings of Britain and was translated into Middle English in Layamon s Brut and the later alliterative Alliterative Morte Arthure Both owed much to the epic poem Beowulf which draws on the Anglo Saxon fascination with the wilderness The most famous Arthurian tale is Sir Gawain and the Green Knight in which the wilderness and themes from Beowulf play a leading role Three Arthurian tales set in Inglewood Forest place Arthur and Gawain in a wilderness setting and link Arthur to medieval Robin Hood tales Lived Experiences of Multiculture Sarah Neal, Katy Bennett, Allan Cochrane, Giles Mohan, 2017-09-05 In an increasingly ethnically diverse society debates about migration community cultural difference and social interaction have never been more pressing Drawing on the findings from a two year qualitative Economic and Social Research Council funded study of different locations across England Lived Experiences of Multiculture uses interdisciplinary perspectives to examine the ways in which complex urban populations experience negotiate accommodate and resist cultural difference as they share a range of everyday social resources and public spaces The authors present novel ways of re thinking and developing concepts such as multiculture community and conviviality whilst also repositioning debates which focus on conflict models for understanding cultural differences Amidst highly charged arguments over the social relations of belonging and the meanings of local and national identities this timely volume will appeal to advanced undergraduate students and graduate students interested in fields such as Race and Ethnicity Studies Sociology Urban Studies Human Geography and Migration Studies Talking with Your Kids about God Natasha Crain, 2017-10-17 Christian parenting is hard work and it s getting harder Parents have a deep desire to pass on their faith but fear that today s increasingly skeptical and hostile world will eventually lead their kids to reject the truth of Christianity That leaves many parents feeling overwhelmed uncertain of what they can do to help their children given the difficulty and extent of the faith challenges they will face This practical and timely resource gives parents the confidence of knowing what to discuss with their children and how to discuss it in order to facilitate impactful conversations that will form the basis of a lifelong faith In a friendly parent to parent voice Natasha Crain identifies 30 specific conversations about God that parents must have with their children organizing them under the categories of the existence of God science and God the nature of God believing in God the difference God makes Chapters are sequenced in a curriculum oriented way to provide a cumulative learning experience making this book a flexible resource for use in multiple settings homes church classes youth groups small groups private Christian schools and homeschools Every chapter has a step by step conversation guide with discussion questions and tips and content is readily adaptable for use with kids of any age elementary through high school

Endorsements My prayer is that God will use this book to both motivate and equip you to help your kids develop convictions about their faith From the foreword by Sean McDowell PhD Biola University professor speaker and author of more than eighteen books including A New Kind of Apologist I can t think of a more relevant or more needed book for parents raising kids in today s culture This book on apologetics will lead parents in critical conversations that will help grow and guide kids to be lifelong followers of Christ Kristen Welch author of Raising Grateful Kids in an Entitled World Hey parents Do you want to reduce the chances that your child will follow the crowd to the point of rejecting Christ and the values and truths you hold so dearly Then you need to have the conversations that Natasha Crain so brilliantly describes in this book Prevent heartbreak later by reading and heeding this book now Frank Turek PhD president of CrossExamined Ministries and author of I Don t Have Enough Faith to Be an Atheist and Stealing from God May this book lead to thousands more Moms and Dads engaging with their kids through an intelligent faith And may there be tens of thousands more kids who feel loved because the adults in their lives take their questions seriously Jeff Myers PhD president Summit Ministries Being Urban Simon

Goldhill,2020-09-06 In Being Urban Simon Goldhill and his team of outstanding urbanists explore the meaning of the urban condition with particular reference to the Middle East As Goldhill explains in his introduction What is a good city five questions motivate the book How can a city be systematically planned and yet maintain a possibility of flexibility change and the wellbeing of citizens How does the city represent itself to itself and image its past its present and its future What is it to dwell in and experience a city How does violence erupt in and to a city and what strategies of reconciliation and reconstruction can be employed And finally what is the relationship between the infrastructure of the city and the political process Following the introduction the twelve chapters are grouped into four sections Engagement and Space Infrastructure and Space Conflict and Structures and Curating the City Through each chapter the contributors reflect on aspects of urban infrastructure and culture citizenship belonging and exclusion politics and conflict with examples from across the Middle East from Cairo to Tehran Tel Aviv to Istanbul Not only will Being Urban further understanding of the topography of citizenship in the Middle East and beyond it will also contribute to answering one of today s key questions What Is A Good

City Geographers Elizabeth Baigent, André Reyes Novaes, 2019-12-26 Women are the exclusive focus of the 38th volume of Geographers. For the first time in the series history the entire volume is devoted to important work of distinguished female geographers amply demonstrating how these scholars' professional lives enrich the discipline's history. It also illustrates how reading and writing their biographies not only expands our understanding of geography's past but points to its more diverse future. The collection includes biographies of Doreen Massey winner of geography's Nobel prize the prix Vautrin Lud for her remarkable contribution to geography and neighbouring disciplines which discovered the importance of space through her work Helen Wallis geographer and historian of cartography who for many years had charge of the UK's foremost collection of maps Alice Saunier Set who applied her geographical training and formidable energy to teaching and educational reform in France Isabel Margarida Andr who lived through a turbulent political period in her native Portugal and meticulously investigated its effect on women and political geography and the many women who helped to create the UK's first Geography department the University of Oxford's School of Geography including Fanny Herbertson Nora MacMunn Marjorie Sweeting Mary Marshall Barbara Kennedy and other women geographers who are memorialised in a group article.
