Anne J. Mathews,1987 Selecting Materials for Children and Young Adults Association for Library Service to Children,American Library Association. Young Adult Services Division,1980 The Hook Peninsula Billy Colfer,2004 The Hook Peninsula continues the Irish Rural Landscape series building on the research agenda established by the internationally successful Atlas of the Irish Rural Landscape Located in county Wexford this region was the first to be conquered by the Anglo Normans and its landscape was shaped by the establishment of two Cistercian abbeys Tintern and Dunbrody in the Middle Ages The location of the peninsula beside a major estuary and busy shipping lanes was of vital importance The Hook figured prominently in the Confederate Wars in the seventeenth century and in the 1798 rebellion This compact and highly distinctive peninsula makes for a compelling case study in which Billy Colfer carefully knits the local story into a wider narrative An eye for detail and an intuitive understanding of his local community creates a vivid story while Colfer s obvious love for the Hook infuses the volume with an underlying passion all the more moving for being understated Ireland an island nation has at last a volume informed by a maritime perspective from a writer who understands the sea and its formative influence on landscapes and lives In these beautiful pages an astonishing array of maps photographs paintings archive sketches and new drawings ensure that the Hook landscape is given a radiant treatment BOOK JACKET Gender(ed)

Identities Tricia Clasen,Holly Hassel,2016-08-25 This volume brings together diverse cross disciplinary scholarly voices to examine gender construction in children s and young adult literature It complements and updates the scholarship in the field by creating a rich cohesive examination of core questions around gender and sexuality in classic and contemporary texts By providing an expansive treatment of gender and sexuality across genres eras and national literature the collection explores how readers encounter unorthodox as well as traditional notions of gender It begins with essays exploring how children s and YA literature construct communities formed by gender ethnicity sexuality and in face to face and virtual spaces Section II s central focus is how gendered identities are formed unpacking how texts for young readers ranging from Amish youth periodicals to the blockbuster Divergent series trace reproduce and shape gendered identity socialization In section III the essential literary function of translating trauma into narrative is addressed in classics like Anne of Green Gables and

Pollyanna as well as more recent works Section IV's focus on sexuality and romance encompasses fiction and nonfiction works examining how children's and young adult literature can serve as a regressive progressive and transgressive site for construction meaning about sex and romance Last Section IV offers new readings of paratextual features in literature for children from the classic tale of Cinderella to contemporary illustrated novels The key achievement of this volume is providing an updated range of multidisciplinary and methodologically diverse analyses of critically and commercially successful texts contributing to the scholarship on children's and YA literature gender sexuality and women's studies and a range of other disciplines
