Hope Against Hope Richard Bauckham, Trevor A. Hart, 1999-10-21 The hopes by which the modern West has lived are widely understood to have failed At the outset of the third millennium we see the ideology of historical progress for what it is a myth that can no longer provide humanity with grounds for true hope In Hope against Hope Richard Bauckham and Trevor Hart present a way forward through a radical faith in a global future that is in God's hands Using the present failure of secular hope as the context for a renewal of the Christian vision for the future Bauckham and Hart seek to re source Christian hope from its rich heritage of biblical promises and their interpretation in the Christian tradition In a fresh and skillful way they explore the major images of eschatology the Antichrist the millennium the last judgment the kingdom of God and others proposing the category of imagination as the key to understanding their significance today The authors insist throughout on the cosmic scope of Christian eschatology writing of God's future not just for human individuals but for the whole creation and they explore the relevance of such an eschatology for Christian living in the present A thoroughly interdisciplinary work that integrates biblical study systematic theology and astute analysis of contemporary Western culture Hope against Hope is unique in offering a heartening look at the future from the perspective of life today Reference
