modern artists Uhl shows that while Picasso Braque and Man Ray used scissors and glue to create collages Ernst employed techniques he himself had forged rubbing and scraping to bring images forth onto a sheet of paper or canvas to simulate how a screen image or memory comes into the mind's view In addition Ernst scoured the past for obsolete scientific illustrations and odd advertisements to illustrate the rapidity with which time passes and to simulate the apprehension generated when rapid flows of knowledge turn living culture into artifact Ultimately Uhl reveals Ernst was interested in the construction and phenomenology of both collective and individual modern history and memory Shedding new light on Ernst's working methods and the reasons that his pieces continue to imprint themselves in viewers' memories Prehistoric Future is an innovative work of critical writing on a key figure of surrealism
