Nurturing Minds: An Integrated Journey Through Child Development and Educational Psychology 2025 1. Dr. Savita Saloman 2. Dr. Divya Sharma 3. Dr. Jaya Singh 4. Dr. Gopa Sharma, PREFACE Children do not enter school as blank slates or single types They arrive as

whole persons growing bodies reasoning minds shifting emotions emerging values and living cultures

Nurturing Minds: An Integrated Journey Through Child Development and Educational Psychology was written to honor that wholeness and to give teachers a coherent practice ready map for cultivating it in real classrooms. This book responds to two persistent needs. First, educators seek clear guidance on what develops when from infancy through adolescence and how growth across biological, cognitive, socio-emotional, language and moral domains interrelates. Second, they want bridgework, concrete routines, tools and lesson structures that translate theory into everyday teaching. We integrate global research with India's rich intellectual heritage. Vedic thought, the Pa-chi-Ko a model and Sri Aurobindo's Integral Education so readers can view learners through complementary lenses rather than a single framework. The volume is organized into four units. Unit I establish foundations including Indian perspectives on manas, buddhi and smriti and a holistic view of potential through the five kosas. Unit II examines stage-wise development determinants such as genes, nutrition, family, school and society and the realities of individual differences and special needs with tools for early identification. Unit III explores how children learn comparing Behaviourism, Cognitivism, Constructivism, Information Processing and Integral approaches and shows when to blend them. Unit IV turns to motivation and classroom climate offering humane strategies that sustain engagement and order. Each chapter is designed for direct application: a concept map and learning outcomes, a classroom vignette, core ideas in plain language. From Theory to Practice, routines and checklists, an Inclusive Lens for adapting instruction, quick assessment probes and a Reflect, practitioners can dip in while planning teaching or troubleshooting. Several commitments run through the text: evidence-informed practices that have been classroom tested; dignity and inclusion as non-negotiables; cultural responsiveness that draws on local languages and contexts while building global competencies and practical transfer so tools move easily into lesson plans, IEP meetings, parent conferences and professional development. By the end, readers should be able to interpret behaviour developmentally, distinguish what won't do from what can't do yet, design experiences that balance guidance and independence, use observation and quick diagnostics to recognize learning diversity early and build motivating classrooms where routines, relationships and relevance sustain effort and curiosity. Just as importantly, the book offers a shared language of development and learning for teachers, families and school leaders. We are indebted to the students whose questions sharpened our thinking, the teachers who opened their classrooms and the tradition—scientific and philosophical—that remind us education is both skill and soul. If these pages help you see a learner more clearly or make one routine more humane, they will have served their purpose.
