Project 3	11/15

Key Concepts

Students will learn about the structure and function of the judicial branch.

Structure & Function

The judicial branch is responsible for interpreting the Constitution and laws. It is made up of the Supreme Court and lower federal courts. The Supreme Court is the highest court in the land and has the final say on all cases.

Lower federal courts are responsible for hearing cases that involve federal law. They are organized into circuits, with each circuit having a court of appeals. The Supreme Court is made up of nine justices, who are appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate.

The Supreme Court's Judicial Review

Students will learn about the power of judicial review and how it is used by the Supreme Court.

Working & Writing

Judicial Process

The judicial process is the way that cases are heard and decided by the courts. It begins with a complaint or lawsuit being filed in a court. The case then goes through a series of steps, including discovery, trial, and appeal. The Supreme Court is the final court of appeal and has the power to overturn lower court decisions. The process is designed to ensure that the law is applied fairly and consistently.
