Julia S Search For Independence:

Julia's Search for Independence June Bryan Belfie, 2015-01-06 Julia Montgomery a beautiful young socialite spends a year in Rome Italy with her domineering mother and doting father who is there temporarily on business Deeply affected by a childhood tragedy Julia has recurring nightmares and suffers from guilt and insecurity While studying art at the local university Julia becomes friends with a group of young people including an attractive Italian professor and historian named Antony Scarpelli She and Antony grow close through the group s regular get togethers at a local caf and Julia finds herself enjoying the closeness and acceptance of Antony s family Unknown to her Italian friends Julia is engaged to a wealthy young businessman back in the States The union was practically arranged by their mothers from the time of their childhood Influenced by her family Julia accepted his proposal believing love would follow Now she questions that decision Her faith has never been important to her but when faced with her many trials Julia realizes the void in her life and searches for a meaningful relationship with God A friend from school invites her to India to help at an orphanage but would Julia s mission work be a way to serve God or an escape from pain

Narrating Motherhood(s), Breaking the Silence Silvia Caporale-Bizzini, 2006 Feminist theory on motherhood has successfully transformed mothers into subjects of their own discourse recognized the historical heterogeneous and socially constructed origins of their life experience while at the same time widening our understanding of the notion of mothering This collection combines a literary and a wider cultural perspective from which to look at the topic of the representation of other or forgotten motherhoods Mothers who have been forced to live exiled and away from their children women who after trying to conceive get pregnant but discover they cannot bear to become mothers or even literary characters based on an autobiographical experience of a sexually abusive mother The essays critically point out how writing becomes a tool to think and write about the many aspects of motherhood such as an idealized maternal experience versus the real one or the accepted stereotypes of the good mother and the bad mother

In Search of the Riemann Zeros Michel Laurent Lapidus, 2008 Formulated in 1859 the Riemann Hypothesis is the most celebrated and multifaceted open problem in mathematics In essence it states that the primes are distributed as harmoniously as possible or equivalently that the Riemann zeros are located on a single vertical line called the critical line

Medical Assistance in Dying (MAID) in Canada Jaro Kotalik, David W. Shannon, 2023-07-25 This book written both for a Canadian and an international readership provides a multidisciplinary review of the framework and performance of the Canadian Medical Assistance in Dying MAID program In the first five years 2015-2021 of operation this program delivered voluntary euthanasia and assistance in suicide to over 30 000 Canadian residents presently representing a 30% annual growth Looking back on these first five years the 30 Canadian scholars and clinicians contributing to this volume raise important issues and attempt to answer key questions that have arisen in regards to its operation and its stated objectives This volume strikes the most appropriate balance between the autonomy of persons who seek medical assistance versus the interests and protection of vulnerable persons Finally the book makes suggestions on how the program can presently be improved It identifies gaps in knowledge about MAID's operational program and its impact on individuals families and society in order to stimulate the necessary research that is essential to the evolution of a healthy and well balanced program As a first comprehensive examination of medically assisted deaths in Canada this publication will be of great value to lay professional academic political audiences both domestically and internationally especially in jurisdictions that are examining their options of permitting assisted deaths

Appropriating Gender Patricia Jeffery, Amrita Basu, 2012-11-12 Appropriating Gender explores the paradoxical relationship of women to religious politics in India Pakistan Sri Lanka and Bangladesh Contrary to the hopes of feminists many women have responded to religious nationalist appeals contrary to the hopes of religious nationalists they have also asserted their gender class caste and religious identities contrary to the hopes of nation states they have often challenged state policies and practices Through a comparative South Asia perspective Appropriating Gender explores the varied meanings and expressions of gender identity through time by location and according to political context The first work to focus on women's agency and activism within the South Asian context Appropriating Gender is an outstanding contribution to the field of gender studies
