The Publishers Weekly ,1879      My Colombian War Silvana Paternostro,2008-09-02 A Colombian born journalist furnishes an eyewitness account of her homeland's history detailing the drug trade social inequities and violence that wrack the country and the impact that such factors have on the lives of ordinary citizens The Embers and the Stars Erazim Kohák, 1987-11-15 It is hard to put this profound book into a category Despite the author's criticisms of Thoreau it is more like Walden than any other book I have read The book makes great strides toward bringing the best insights from medieval philosophy and from contemporary environmental ethics together Anyone interested in both of these areas must read this book Daniel A Dombrowski The Thomist Those who share Kohák's concern to understand nature as other than a mere resource or matter in motion will find his temporally oriented interpretation of nature instructive It is here in particular that Kohák turns moments of experience to account philosophically turning what we habitually overlook or avoid into an opportunity and basis for self knowledge This is an impassioned attempt to see the vital order of nature and the moral order of our humanity as one Ethics Life's Ever Changing Emotions Ronald Black, 2013-02-26 Poetry is something that we all share each time that we think a thought We think in poetry only some of us are not able to put it in words but thoughts of poetry live in our hearts We are filled with emotions and that is what poetry is You need to just open your heart to the words written for they are the words coming from a heart just like you From our pain and our sacrifices to our joy and happiness when you read this we will be able to see that we are all the same seeking love and a dream that we can claim There are times when we may feel lost and there is nothing that we can do The truth is that there will always be options for us to choose Only with our ever changing emotions at the time we are blind to see For every action there is an opposite reaction There are things that we know that we can do yet we get caught up in the things that we are going through There are times when we are happy and times when we are sad It is a delicate balance in the lives that we live Each of us will need to come to grips with the way that we feel We are never alone although we think at the time that we are alone We need to find the courage to reach out and say that we are here Is there anyone out there that care about the lives that we live At the end of the day if we listen closely we will be able to hear a voice saying that I am here you are not alone Ever changing emotions is what will live in our hearts We just have to decide the things that we want to do and find the courage to follow them through The Life that I have had to live has been very difficult but the love in my heart kept me strong even when I sometimes may have felt alone I have cried my share of tears and I have suffered many years but I kept the love in my heart We are human and we make mistakes but as long as we live there will always be another road for us to take I pray that the poems that you are reading help you to understand that we all go through life's ever changing emotions We have to live in the moment and if that moment continues to last then we should remember that our lives are made up of our past present and our future For as long as we live we can change the way that we feel Love and forgiveness is what we should always hold most precious in our lives Love and forgiveness can forever live in our hearts Poetry is something that we all share each time that we think a thought We think in poetry only some of us are not able to put it in words but thoughts of poetry live in our hearts We are filled with emotions and that is what poetry is You need to just open your heart to the words written for they are the words coming from a heart just like you From our pain and our sacrifices to our joy and happiness when you read this we will be able to see that we are all the same seeking love and a dream that we can claim

8 Ocean Angels the Road to Infinity for the Gifted Grant King,2014-08-08 Who are ocean angels What distinguishes them from other people Are you one of them In 8 Ocean Angels the author Grant King presents notable characters he considers as real life ocean angels such as Francois Marie Arouet Massimo Bontempelli William Shakespeare Emily Dickinson Ezra Pound and Socrates and describes how they ultimately represent these entities in how they see life and relate to nature and the entire cosmos The narrative uses repetition of words lines and ideas to create a meditative tone effectively drawing you into mantric reading as you go through each chapter A book on enlightenment and discoveries it beckons for introspection guiding you to the awareness of your real capabilities of the real nature of life and of the truth about our relationship with a higher power Spiritual and personal the book paves the way for the understanding that we are not solitary entities but are interconnected elements in a majestic and grand design

Get a Grip on Your Lip Beth Jones,2013-07-16 Words have power They can shape your world encourage and inspire or they can sting and wound Words carry the power of life and death Words are powerful containers that frame your world Learn how to get a grip on your lip and displace depression negativity and failure with joy faith and success Getting a grip on your lip might be the most important thing you do this year

Bounded People, Boundless Lands Eric T. Freyfogle,1998-09 What right do humans have to claim sovereignty over the land to build fences and set boundaries when nature itself recognizes no such boundaries Is there hope for a new land ethic that is less destructive toward the land that views nature as something to be valued and nurtured rather than exploited and developed One of the main challenges of contemporary environmentalism is to find a lasting more ethical way for people to live on the planet In Bounded People Boundless Lands legal scholar Eric T Freyfogle asks a series of pointed and challenging questions about the human quest for ecological harmony Deftly interweaving moral and ethical considerations with case studies and real life situations Freyfogle provides a deep philosophical examination of personal responsibility and the dominion of human beings over the earth He raises provocative questions about private property rights responsible land ownership the rights of wildlife and ecological health Although the questions that Freyfogle asks are not new they are presented in the context of contemporary events often connected to legal cases which allows him to bring age old issues up to date and to make direct connections between abstract concepts and our own lives Throughout Freyfogle questions the way human beings envision the land thinking they can claim nature as their own and criticizes market approaches to valuing and using nature As an introduction to land ethics but one that embraces environmental legal and philosophical arguments Bounded People Boundless Lands is a unique contribution to the environmental literature      The Apostate's Progress from the Kingdom of Christ ... to the Dominions of Satan ...
