Teaching Interreligious Encounters Marc A. Pugliese, Alexander Y. Hwang, 2017-08-01 In Teaching Interreligious Encounters Marc A. Pugliese and Alexander Y. Hwang have gathered together a multidisciplinary and international group of scholar teachers to explore the pedagogical issues that occur at the intersection of different religious traditions. This volume is a theoretical and practical guide for new teachers as well as seasoned scholars. It breaks the pedagogy of interreligious encounters down into five distinct components. In the first part, essays explore the theory of teaching these encounters; in the second, essays discuss course design. The parts that follow engage practical ideas for teaching textual analysis practice and real world application. Despite their disciplinary, contextual, and methodological diversity, these essays share a common vision for the learning goals and outcomes of teaching interreligious encounters. This is a much needed resource for any teacher participating in these conversations in our age of globalization and migration with its attendant hopes and fears. The Strauss, Christopher Strauss, 2019-08-20 Justice has been the dominant cultural framework of people in the West for two centuries ever since the rise of constitutional democracies. Consciously or not, most people in the West have a strong awareness of right and wrong. Their sense of morality is generally rooted in an obligation to the rule of law. In democratic societies, the rule of law ultimately relies on constitutional documents ratified by a widely accepted process of development and implementation. For millennia, honor has been the dominant cultural framework of most people in the East and Middle East. Here, people know that speech and behavior display respect or disrespect. While pervasive in all relationships, honor and shame are most important in the family, extended family, and local community. In the East, honor is not necessarily an internal feeling as it is in a justice culture. Honor is more often an external attribution bestowed by others rather than claimed by oneself. Harmony is prevalent globally in indigenous cultures. Many indigenous peoples do not distinguish between the supernatural and natural worlds All aspects of life are connected Interactions with spirit beings are the key to maintaining harmony in order to be secure Reciprocity is a common cultural framework in the Global South Here one learns to develop connections with the right people in given circumstances for needed resources These connections may or may not be characterized as friendships and provide not so much close friendships as reciprocal exchange In some places reciprocity is the means whereby one survives Bookseller, 1879 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series Encyclopedia of Living Divines and Christian Workers of All Denominations in Europe and America Philip Schaff, Samuel Macauley Jackson, 1887 Book Bulletin Chicago Public Library, 1914 The Bookseller, 1880 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom Resources in Education, 1997 Chinese Religion Gary Seaman, 1993 International Business Shad Morris, James Oldroyd, 2020-07-21 Leveraging their extensive background at multi national corporations co authors Shad Morris and James Oldroyd created an International Business course that is current concise and easy to implement As instructors themselves the authors focused on engaging pedagogy that prepares students for the global marketplace and created interactive resources to deepen the learning experience This second edition of International Business includes extensive updates including coverage on important topics like COVID 19 Brexit and the US China trade war Additionally the WileyPLUS course provides just in time resources like chapter introductory videos whiteboard animations cases case application problems adaptive practice and more to help students apply their learning and think critically Revisionism and Diversification in New Religious Movements Eileen Barker, 2016-04-08 New Religious Movements tend to start their lives with a number of unequivocal statements not only of a theological nature but also about the world and appropriate behaviours for the believer Yet these apparently inalienable Truths and their interpretations frequently become revised adjusted or selectively adopted by different believers This book explores different ways in which as NRMs develop stagnate fade away or abruptly cease to exist certain orthodoxies and practices have for one reason or another been dropped or radically altered Sometimes such changes are adapted by only a section of the movement resulting in schism Of particular concern are processes that might lead to violent and or anti social behaviour As part of the Ashgate Inform series and in the spirit of the Inform Seminars this book approaches its topic from a wide range of perspectives Contributors include academics current and former members of NRMs and members of cult watching movements All the contributions are of a scholarly rather than a polemic nature and brought together by Eileen Barker the founder of Inform Catalog of Copyright Entries.
