and their closeness to the desert Starting in 1933 O Keeffe and Wright exchanged roughly two dozen letters in which they expressed admiration for one another but also their passion for the places that informed them many of which they had in common Both were born in rural Wisconsin and built their careers in Chicago and New York However both sought inspiration and fulfillment in places farther afield including in Japan and the desert landscape of the American Southwest Juxtaposing images highlighting shared aspects of their individual biographies and work this unique take on American creative expression explores the nature of artistic friendship and the idea of home Rovang's text gives rich context to the allure and romance of her visual subject offering readers new ways to appreciate O Keeffe's and Wright's monumental contributions to American culture
