Education in a New South Africa Robert J. Balfour, 2015-09-24 A collaborative series with the University of Cambridge Faculty of Education highlighting leading edge research across Teacher Education International Education Reform and Language Education

Women Judges Ulrike Schultz, Masengu Tabeth, Avrom Sherr, 2024-06-14 Do women have equal chances in the judiciary Although women have made their way into law faculties in many countries of the world they still face drawbacks in judicial careers This book delves into the different aspects of women at work in the judicial environment focusing on judicial appointments promotions the glass ceiling and representation in high positions of the judiciary across international settings such as Nigeria South Africa Philippines Turkey Spain and Northern Ireland The contributions go beyond the classical career issues by digging into several questions related to women at work in the judicial environment such as Are women accepted by their colleagues and by clients at court male and female Do they get the recognition they deserve or is there indecent behaviour and discrimination against them What about work life balance And how do women judges perceive their role The book offers valuable insights by questioning and criticising the status quo paving the way to a gender equal future in the judiciary A significant new contribution to international scholarship in the field this book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of the Legal Profession

Globalisation, Ideology and Education Reforms Joseph Zajda, 2020-06-17 This book analyses the nexus between ideology the state and education reforms worldwide The research evinces the neo liberal ideological imperatives of current education and policy reforms and illustrates the way these shifts in the relationship between the state and education policy are affecting current trends in education reforms and schooling around the globe With this as its focus the chapters represent hand picked scholarly research on major discourses in the field of global education reforms Offering a compendium of the very latest thought on the subject this book is like the others in the series a state of the art sourcebook for researchers practitioners and policymakers alike Not only do the chapters offer a timely analysis of current issues shaping education policy research the work also contains ideas about future directions that education and policy reforms could take By doing so it provides a comprehensive view of the diverse and intersecting discourses on globalisation and policy driven reforms in education The book draws on recent studies in the areas of globalisation education reforms and the role of the state Respective chapters critically assess the dominant discourses and debates on education and policy reforms Using diverse comparative education paradigms ranging from critical theory to historical comparative research they focus on globalisation ideology and democracy and examine both the reasons for and outcomes of education reforms and policy change

The Zuma Years Richard Calland, 2013-08-16 The face of power in South Africa is rapidly changing for better and for worse The years since Thabo Mbeki was swept aside by Jacob Zuma's coalition of the wounded have been especially tumultuous with the rise and fall of populist politicians such as Julius Malema the terrible events at Marikana and the embarrassing Guptagate scandal What lies behind these developments How does the Zuma presidency exercise its power Who makes our foreign policy What goes on in cabinet meetings What is the state of play in the Alliance is the SACP really more powerful than before And as the landscape shifts what are the opposition s prospects In The Zuma Years Richard Calland attempts to answer these questions and more by holding up a mirror to the new establishment by exploring how people such as Malema Chief Justice Mogoeng Mogoeng and DA parliamentary leader Lindiwe Mazibuko have risen so fast by examining key drivers of transformation in South Africa such as the professions and the universities and by training a spotlight on the toxic mix of money and politics The Zuma Years is a fly on the wall insider s approach to the people who control the power that affects us all It takes you along the corridors of government and corporate power mixing solid research with vivid anecdote and interviews with key players The result is an accessible yet authoritative account of who runs South Africa and how today

The Farmerfield Mission Fiona Vernal,2012-08-29 The Farmerfield Mission explores the history of a residential Christian community in South Africa established for Africans in 1838 by Methodist missionaries destroyed in 1962 by the apartheid government when it was zoned as an exclusive area for white occupation and returned to the descendants of the community under South Africa s land reform program in 1999 Human Resources Development Review 2008 Andre Kraak,Karen Press,2008 Through 25 chapters authored by some of the leading researchers in the field the Human Resources Development Review 2008 provides an extensive overview of the contextual factors driving human resources development in South Africa A key theme throughout the volume is the importance of a multi faceted skills development strategy operating at three levels The first entails high skills policies aimed at expanding export oriented manufacturing production and services provision particularly in new globally competitive niche areas The second relates to the economy s ongoing need for intermediate skills as is evident in the shortage of skilled artisans and technologists Finally the provision of basic entry level skills is important in view of the urgent need for large scale job creation schemes triggered by public sector initiatives to ameliorate high levels of unemployment and despondency especially amongst the youth

Civil Service List Cape of Good Hope (South Africa),1888 Includes the Civil service calendar Gaffney's Local Government in South Africa ,2009 Human-Nature

Interactions Ieva Misiune,Daniel Depellegrin,Lukas Egarter Vigl,2022-06-30 This edited volume aims to widen the discussion about the diversity of human nature relationships and valuation methods and to stimulate new perspective that are needed to build a more sustainable future especially in face of ongoing socio environmental changes Conceptual and empirical approaches including qualitative quantitative and mixed methodologies have been used to highlight the importance of an integrative understanding of socio ecological systems where healthy ecosystems underpin the quality of life and societal activities largely drive environmental changes Readers will obtain a comprehensive overview of the many and diverse ways the relationships between people and nature can be characterized This includes understanding how people assign values to nature discuss how human nature interactions are shaped and provide examples of how these values and interactions can be systematically assessed across different land systems in Europe and beyond This open access book is produced by internationally recognized scientists in the field but written in an accessible format to be of interest to a large audience including prospective students lecturers young professionals and scientists embarking to the interdisciplinary field of socio ecological research and environmental valuation

Zelnick,Charles Levenstein,Robert Forrant,John Wooding,2017-07-05 This book explores the impacts of HIV AIDS and neoliberal globalization on the occupational health of public sector hospital nurses in KwaZulu Natal South Africa The story of South African public sector nurses provides multiple perspectives on the HIV AIDS epidemic for a workforce that played a role in the struggle against apartheid women who deal with the burden of HIV AIDS care at work and in the community and a constituency of the new South African democracy that is working on the frontlines of the HIV AIDS epidemic Through case studies of three provincial hospitals in KwaZulu Natal set against a historical backdrop this book tells the story of the HIV AIDS epidemic in the post apartheid period

The State, Education and Equity in Post-Apartheid South Africa Enver Motala,2020-09-10 This title was first published in 2002 Has the South African post apartheid state been able to achieve its stated goals What has been the relationship between the process of educational reform and the impact on the state of the Constitution and other laws This seminal book responds to these questions by examining the development and implementation of social policy in South Africa during the first years of democratic government particularly in relation to education The post apartheid state was immediately faced with a broad spectrum of political social economic and human rights issues The research analyzes whether the aims and objectives of the new administration were achieved no other single collection of research in South Africa collectively explores the issues raised in this endeavour The book will appeal to a wide range of professionals including researchers academics planners policy makers public servants and postgraduate students

Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy,Robert Cameron,Ursula Hoadley,Vinothan Naidoo,2018-09-21 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation The Politics and

Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education Using the vivid example of South Africa a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re orient the system towards learning

Responsibility in Small Things Monde Ndandani, 2020-08-24 Aspiring to be upright and honourable This book is about metaphorical bricks small things that make walls of all types of buildings within which people work and live The figurative walls in the pages of this book are the Noah social types of the holy Bible Behaviour is the function of character A well behaved person young and old develops to be a paragon of virtue a rare species amongst the peoples of this world Universal and generic good behavior project starts with casual greeting one s family members in the morning and after intervals of absence from one s home Greeting people anywhere should be spontaneous Children learn being courteous from their homes same as telling the truth all the time giving lies no space Hence building average good and steadfast citizenry is the responsibility of each homestead and family If being sturdy is the essential feature of leadership then every citizen in any country in the world can have her his turn to lead

Violence, Inequality and Transformation: Apartheid Survivors on South Africa's Ongoing Transition Jasmina Brankovic, Brian Mphahlele, Sindiswa Nunu, Agnes Ngxukuma, Nompumelelo Njana, Yanelisa Sishuba, 2020-01-29 Despite its lauded political transition in 1994 South Africa continues to have among the highest levels of violence and inequality in the world Organised survivors of apartheid violations have long maintained that we cannot adequately address violence in the country let alone achieve full democracy without addressing inequality This book is built around extensive quotes from members of Khulumani Support Group the apartheid survivors social movement and young people growing up in Khulumani families It shows how these survivors who bridge the past and the present through their activism understand and respond to socioeconomic drivers of violence Pointing to the continuities between apartheid oppression and post apartheid marginalisation in everyday life the narratives detail ways in which the democratic dispensation has strengthened barriers to social transformation and helped enable violence They also present strategies for effecting change through collaboration dialogue and mutual training and through partnerships with diverse stakeholders that build on local level knowledge and community based initiatives The lens of violence offers new and manageable ways to think about reducing inequality while the lens of inequality shows that violence is a complex web of causes pathways and effects that requires a big picture approach to unravel The survivors narratives suggest innovative strategies for promoting a just transition through people driven transformation that go well beyond the constraints of South Africa s transitional justice practice to date A result of participatory research conducted in collaboration with and by Khulumani members this book will be of interest to activists students researchers and policy makers working on issues of transitional justice inequality and violence South Africa Nancy L. Clark, William H. Worger, 2022-04-06 This new edition of South Africa examines the history of South Africa from 1948 to the present covering the economic background to racial segregation the introduction of the oppressive policy of apartheid the eventual collapse of White supremacy and the legacy of apartheid to the present day Fully revised the fourth edition incorporates new original research particularly from the records of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and includes additional popular culture images such as posters linked to the international anti apartheid struggle These help to further emphasise the mounting popular opposition to state repression in the 1970s and 1980s By developing an analysis of recent economic and political issues that are rooted in the apartheid regime particularly the continuing divide between rich and poor along racial lines and the impact of public corruption known as state capture South Africa provides a current clear and succinct introduction to the ideology and practice of apartheid Illustrated with photographs maps and figures and including a Chronology Glossary Who's Who and updated Further Reading section the fourth edition of South Africa is an essential text for students studying all aspects of apartheid in South Africa
