Burmese Supernaturalism Melford E. Spiro, 2017-07-12. Though the people of Burma now called Myanmar are formally Buddhist their folk religion a type of animism or supernaturalism is so unlike classical Buddhism that it seems contradictory. For years scholars of religion and anthropology have debated the questions: Do these folk beliefs make up a separate religious system? Or is there a subtle merging of supernaturalism and Buddhism a kind of syncretism? In either case how exactly does folk religion fit into the overall religious pattern? Melford Spiro's Burmese Supernaturalism has been one of the major works in this debate both for its position on the two religions question and for its arguments concerning the psychological basis of religion. The book begins with an introduction to the study of supernaturalism The next section of the work covers various types of supernaturalism including witches ghost and demons Other areas of discussion include supernaturally caused illness and its treatment the shaman the exorcist and the relationship between supernaturalism and Buddhism In the introduction to this expanded edition Spiro further develops the underlying logic of his argument and evaluates the most recent contributions to the field of the anthropology of religion Burmese Supernaturalism is an intriguing study and will provide insightful reading for anthropologists sociologists theologians as well as those interested in supernaturalism in Burma Myanmar and other cultures

Haunting Encounters Joanne Lipson Freed,2017-09-15 Acts of cross cultural reading have ethical consequences In Haunting Encounters Joanne Lipson Freed traces the narrative strategies through which certain works of fiction forge connections with their readers across boundaries of difference Freed uses the idea of haunting an intense temporary and transformative encounter that defies rational understanding as a metaphor for the kinds of ethical relationships that such works cultivate with their readers across boundaries of difference Freed points out how such works as Toni Morrison's Beloved Leslie Marmon Silko's Ceremony and Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things strike a delicate balance between empathy and alterity Their engaging narratives Freed argues bring unfamiliar characters and distant settings to life for readers who encounter them as other but they also highlight the limits of fiction holding in check the impulse to colonize another's experience with one's own Haunting Encounters is a sensitive and perceptive application of theory to real world concerns It draws together the fields of postcolonial fiction and narrative ethics and suggests original modes of engagement between readers and books that promise new ways of looking at the world

Structured Worlds

Aubrey Cannon, 2014-10-14 Hunter gatherer societies are constrained by their environment and the technologies available to them However until now the role of culture in foraging communities has not been widely considered Structured Worlds examines the role of cosmology values and perceptions in the archaeological histories of hunter fisher gatherers The essays examine a range of cultures Mesolithic Europe Siberia Jomon Japan the Northwest Coast the northern Plains and High Arctic of North America to show the role of conceptual frameworks in subsistence and settlement technology mobility migration demography and social organization Spanning from the early Holocene period to the present day Structured Worlds draws on archaeology and ethnography to explore the role of beliefs ritual and social values in the interaction between foragers and their physical and social landscape Material culture animal bones and settlement patterns show that the behaviours of hunter gatherers were shaped as much by cultural concepts as by material need

Ghostly Encounters Mark Sandy, Stefano Cracolici, 2020-12-29 This volume reflects on the ghostly and its varied manifestations including the uncanny the revenant the echo and other forms of artistic allusion These unsettling presences of the spectral other occur in literature history film and art The ghostly and its artistic literary filmic and cultural representations remains of burgeoning interest and debate to twenty first century literary critics cultural historians art historians and linguists Our collection of essays considers the wider implications of these representations of the ghostly and notions of the spectral to define a series of different but inter related cultural topics concerned with questions of ageing the uncanny the spectral spiritualism eschatology which imaginatively testify to our compulsion to search for evidence of the ghostly in our everyday encounters with the material world
