Sacred Modes of Being in a Postsecular World Andrew W. Hass,2021-09-16 How do we talk meaningfully about the sacred in contexts where conventional religious expression has so often lost its power Inspired by the influential work of David Jasper this important volume builds on his thinking to identify sacrality in a world where the old religious and secular debates have exhausted themselves and theology struggles for a new language in their wake Distinguished writers explore here the idea of the sacred as one that exists paradoxically in a space that is both possible and impossible profoundly theological on the one hand but also deeply this worldly and irreligious on the other This is a sacredness that is simultaneously present and absent one which encompasses as Jasper himself characterises it the impossible possibility of an absolute vision The book teaches us that the sacred assumes a renewed potency when fully engaged with the creativity that happens across religion literature philosophy and the arts The Authority of Scripture in Reformed Theology Henk Van Den Belt,2008-01-01 This book discusses the concept of the self convincing authority of Scripture in the historical development of Reformed theology and advocates an emphasis on the autopistia in a postmodern context because truth and trust are inseparable Classified Catalog of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh. 1895-1902. In Three Volumes of the field There are fewer journals that seek to introduce biblical and theological scholarship that is also accessible to students JBTS seeks to provide high level scholarship and research to both scholars and students which results in original scholarship that is readable and accessible As an inter denominational journal JBTS is broadly evangelical We accept contributions in all theological disciplines from any evangelical perspective In particular we encourage articles and book reviews within the fields of Old Testament New Testament Biblical Theology Church History Systematic Theology Practical

 Eglinton,George Harinck,2014-08-28 The French Revolution was the scene of much intellectual and social upheaval Its impact touched a wide range of subjects the relationship of the church to the state social relationships science literature fashion philosophy and theology Although the French Revolution s momentum was felt across Europe and North America it met a particularly interesting response in the Netherlands at that time the scene of a burgeoning neo Calvinist movement In that context the likes of Groen van Prinsterer Abraham Kuyper and Herman Bavinck responded to the French Revolution s ideals and influence in a variety of intellectual and practical ways This book approaches that Dutch response from a range of historical and theological perspectives and in so doing explores the relationship between the French Revolution and the development of neo Calvinism Beginning with historical portraits of Bavinck and Kuyper in relation to the Revolution the perspectives offered also include amongst others the place of multilingualism in neo Calvinism and the Revolution neo Calvinist and Revolutionary approaches to fashion a dialogue between Kuyperian theology and Kieslowski s Three Colours trilogy and a contemporary neo Calvinist critique of French la cit This book forms part of a wider Project neo Calvinism supported by the Theologische Universiteit Kampen and the VU University Amsterdam T&T Clark Handbook of Neo-Calvinism Nathaniel Gray Sutanto,Cory Brock,2024-01-25 Neo Calvinism critically advances Reformed orthodoxy for the sake of modern life Birthed in the Netherlands at the turn to the twentieth century initiated by Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 it argued that a life before God entailed the leavening of faith over all human existence

While the movement originated in the Netherlands the tradition now has a global reach with practitioners and thinkers applying its insights in diverse ways and in their own contexts This handbook is a genealogical introduction to this lively and modern branch of the Reformed tradition with contributors that reflect its global reach Its four sections chart the theological roots important original figures historical contours and the contemporary influence of neo Calvinism across a diversity of fields
