instruction on secondary school student Geography learning goals and their learning outcomes This book is highly beneficial for Geography teachers to use multiple teaching methods and pedagogies in a GIS integrated teaching environment to cultivate underachieving students mastery goal performance approach goal and learning and to decrease avoidance behaviour in learning the subject Although GIS is widely used in Malaysia it has not been embraced by the Malaysian education system and is absent from the Geography curriculums in the primary and secondary school contexts Hence writing of this book will also help the Curriculum Development Centre and Ministry of Education Malaysia develop a GIS based teaching module to enhance the learning motivation of Geography and improve the student level of achievement

Developing Writers Across the Primary and Secondary Years Honglin Chen, Debra

Myhill, Helen Lewis, 2020-03-09 Writing development and pedagogy is a high priority area particularly with standardised testing showing declines in writing across time and through the years of schooling However to date there are relatively few texts for teachers and teacher educators which detail how best to enable the children to become confident autonomous and agentic writers of the future Developing Writers Across the Primary and Secondary Years provides cumulative insights into how writing develops and how it can be taught across years of compulsory schooling This edited collection is a timely and original contribution addressing a significant literacy need for teachers of writing across three key stages of writing development covering early 4 7 years old primary 7 12 years old and secondary years 12 16 years old in Anglophone countries Each section addresses two broader themes becoming a writer with a child oriented focus and writing pedagogy with a teacher oriented focus Together the book brings to bear rigorous research and deep professional understanding of the writing classroom It offers a novel approach conceiving of writing development as a dynamic and multidimensional concept Such an integrated interdisciplinary understanding enables pedagogical thinking and development to address more holistically the complex act of writing Limits to Globalization Eric Sheppard, 2016-06-24 This book summarizes how globalizing capitalism the economic system now presumed to dominate the global economy can be understood from a geographical perspective This is in contrast to mainstream economic analysis which theorizes globalizing capitalism as a system that is capable of enabling everyone to prosper and every place to achieve economic development From this perspective the globalizing capitalism perspective has the capacity to reduce poverty Poverty's persistence is explained in terms of the dysfunctional attributes of poor people and places A geographical perspective has two principal aspects Taking seriously how the spatial organization of capitalism is altered by economic processes and the reciprocal effects of that spatial arrangement on economic development and examining how economic processes co evolve with cultural political and biophysical processes From this globalizing capitalism tends to reproduce social and spatial inequality poverty's persistence is due to the ways in which wealth creation in some places results in impoverishment elsewhere Schooling for Sustainable Development in Africa Heila Lotz-Sisitka, Overson Shumba, Justin Lupele, Di Wilmot, 2016-11-11 This book considers the scope and dynamics of Education for Sustainable Development ESD and learning in schools in Africa It explores the conditions and processes that support such learning and examines how ESD in schooling can improve the quality and relevance of education The quality of education has been defined internationally as a key concern for educational institutions around the world including schools in Africa The models of quality are often limited to performance based approaches and or inclusive approaches The contributions in this book show that there is more to a discussion on educational quality in Africa than performance success and or inclusion The chapters explain how ESD brings a new relevance to education in Africa and at the same time sounds the beginning of a new concept of quality education The volume presents a collection of experiences in creating and supporting quality learning processes through a variety of ESD practices
