What is the Environmental Protection Agency allowed to do if it suspects a business that distributes or sells pesticides is in violation of the law?

- A. Temporarily close the business
- B. Collect samples from the business
- C. Ask the business to relocate
- D. Tell the business to sell a different product - ANSWER B

Collect samples from the business. The Environmental Protection Agency is allowed to collect samples from a business it suspects of being in violation of the law. It then analyzes the samples to verify that the business is violating the law. If the EPA determines that an environmental hazard exists, it has the right to temporarily close the business until the hazard has been corrected. However, it cannot close the business until it verifies the hazard. The agency would not ask the business to relocate or to sell a different product.

What type of business is owned by stockholders who share the business's profits?A. Sole proprietorship

- B. Partnership
- C. Cooperative
- D. Corporation - ANSWER D

Corporation. A corporation is an artificial entity with legal status owned by stockholders who have
