world even serving as an inspiration for a classic of musical theater Fiddler on the Roof Timeless tributes to the Jews of Eastern Europe his stories of the shtetl combine the ancient traditions of Hasidic tales and Jewish humor with the aesthetics of Western literature The 20 selections in this volume include some of Sholom Aleichem's finest tales among them Progress in Kasrilevke Summer Romances Birth There's No Dead Someone to Envy Three Widows Homesick On America A Home Away from Home To the Hot Springs and the title story Curt Leviant is the prize winning author of several novels including Diary of an Adulterous Woman Partita in Venice The Man Who Thought He Was Messiah Passion in the Desert and The Yemenite Girl      Mask and Other Stories Nesta Tuomey, 2013-09-18 Love trysts in suburbia romance in Spain Menomadness the prize winning lead story tells of May taking nude rambles in the woods and feeding her lust on erotica until Stan the service man happens by to romp with her in her big featherbed      Suzie-Q --And Other Stories Red Jordan Arobateau, 2012 This collection of shorter works is a glimpse of gay lesbian life in the 1980's Characters of different walks of life nationalities Some deal with substance abuse Most deal with their love lives Tales of struggle and lesbian strength      Of Gulmohars and Kaners and Other Stories Sonika Sethi, 2018-10-04 Of Gulmohars and Kaners is the first work of fiction by the author which paints on a canvas the geographical boundaries that extend from the Indian subcontinent to Europe to Greece and to Turkey These pan global settings subtly convey the idea that while human emotions cannot be fathomed and scanned even by the most powerful equipment it's only the creative writer who can get under the skin of the characters and lay bare what goes on in a single human heart The twenty stories each a unique blend of intricacies of human life and labyrinths of the human mind will keep you riveted throughout the evening From intrigue to insinuation from passion to perdition the stories and microfiction in this collection represent the myriad shades of human emotions revolving around a single action which in no way is linear While some of the stories carry the proverbial twist or sting in the tail others portray with clinical precision the pain and tragedy of human existence But the heterogeneity doesn't end there Just when the reader is in a sombre mood contemplating the fate of a protagonist the author will surprise you with a totally different genre

Incantations and Other Stories Anjana Appachana, 1992 This first collection of fiction by Anjana Appachana provides stories that are beautifully written the characters in them carefully and respectfully drawn All the stories are set in India but the people in them seem somehow displaced within their own society a society in transition but a transition that does not come fast enough to help them Appachana manages to capture the pervasive humor poignancy and self delusion of the lives of the people she observes but she does so without seeming to pass judgments on them She focuses on unexpected moments as if catching her characters off guard lovingly exposing the fragile surfaces of respectability and convention that are so much a part of every society but particularly strong in India with its caste system gender privileges and omnipresent bureaucracies All life seems to be prescribed these characters bravely or cautiously confront the rules and regulations or finally give in to them resignedly any small triumphs they achieve are never clear cut One of the most unusual aspects of many of the stories is the way in which they are informed by but never ruled by the author's feminism. She never lectures her readers but lets us see for ourselves a bride caught in a hopeless marriage where she has given up all rights to any life of her own, a hapless college student who is confined to campus for minor infractions just at the time when she had an appointment for an abortion, a young girl who keeps the dark secret of her sister's rape, a woman executive and a disgruntled male clerk both trapped in the intricate bureaucracy of their business firm and the roles they must play to survive there. By turns warm, gullible, arrogant and bigoted, all of these characters live their lives amid contradictions and double standards, superstitions and impossible dreams. Appachana's vision is unique; her writing superb. Readers will thank her for allowing them to enter territory that is at once distant and exotic but also familiar and recognizable.

Barbed Wire Hookers And Other Stories

William D. McCann, 2014-08-29 BARBED WIRE HOOKERS AND OTHER STORIES is a collection of thirteen stories that explore the struggles of those on the ragged edge of existence, whether the protagonist is a prostitute in the deserts of Nevada, a young American about to be sacrificed by the military industrial complex, or a corbina in the pounding surf of Todos Santos, Baja del Sur.

The Left-Handed Dinner Party and Other Stories Myrl Coulter, 2017-03-24 Contemporary Canadian short fiction about perplexing family secrets and the haunting consequences of loss.

Mecha-Jesus and Other Stories

Derwin Mak, 2024-03-08 From distant stars to a Cocoa Beach Hooters, Derwin Mak's short fiction takes readers through tales of mystery, wonder and horror. Ethnic traditions meld with fantastic visions in these twelve stories about memory, fabric, eldritch gods during the Salem witch trials, and of course Mecha Jesus, Japan's very own android kami.

Lajwanti and Other

Stories Mulk Raj Anand, 1999 In Lajwanti, Mulk Raj Anand focuses on a woman's predicament and struggle to find an identity for herself. Frustrated by a rigid pattern of social relationships, gender bias, religious bigotry, and her own petty human foibles, her abject condition serves as a metaphor for sacrifice and servility, which forms the thematic heart of these stories.

The

Meat Tree and Other Stories Kents Rose, 2010-04-27

The Wrong Set and Other Stories Angus Wilson, 2009-06-04

Angus Wilson's first volume of short stories, The Wrong Set, was first published in 1949 to immense critical acclaim. The collection is a brilliantly funny exposure of the protective devices with which people seek to mask deep-laid egotism. There is the wallowing in self-adulation on the part of the crazy Cockshott family as they delight to dub themselves. There is the search for really nice standards on the part of Vi, singer at the Passion Fruit nightclub, as hopelessly bemused a spirit as ever lived in sin at Earl's Court, and attempted to lecture a young Communist nephew with untidy hair and spectacles. There is the humbug of the bullying new curator at the provincial Art Gallery. And the staff dance at the South Kensington hotel where lives the lady who spends her life trying to achieve a Knightsbridge appearance on a Kensington purse, and where, as the evening progresses and the drinks begin to tell, the lady, like fa adès, and gentlemanly courtesy of the clientele crack up with a vengeance.

A Bit off the Map and Other Stories

Angus Wilson, 2009-06-04 Written in the 1950s, the eight stories collected here are brilliantly of their time: the decade of rubber plants, espresso bars, and skiffle of Suez, Teddy Boys, and Angry

Young Men With compassion and deadly accuracy Angus Wilson charts the scandals and secrets of the respectable middle classes Kinnie the Borstal Boy mascot of an intellectual clique June Raven an SW3 hostess who gets over involved with one of her publisher husband s authors Lord Peacehaven retired megalomaniac Maurice Liebig teenage pawn in a family feud and the mad old man who finds the justice of God in a hen roost      Max Wild the merchant's son, and other stories Franz Hoffmann,1874
