Hot Springs, Past and Present (Classic Reprint) Sally Royce Weir, 2018-01-30 Excerpt from Hot Springs Past and Present As may be supposed the Indians were the first to discover their medicinal properties and there is evidence that they were much esteemed and sought by them not only by those who owned them by right of possession but by other tribes as well The Cherokees were masters of the western part Of the state and there is still a large reservation of them about forty miles from the Springs Evidence is not wanting that Indians came here even from the Great Lakes for Lake Superior copper has been found here which it is supposed they brought for buying peace while bathing in the Springs But few traditions of the Indians have been preserved in connection with this place but the following is one which seems to combine the necessary elements of romance and sadness About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Hot Springs of North Carolina Della Hazel Moore, 2002-07 This informal biography of Hot Springs North Carolina is an affectionate recounting of the pilgrimage of a town and its inhabitants a journey involving triumph tragedy and sorrow Though not intended to be a highly researched and documented narrative the chronicle tells of the the people who helped create Hot Springs those who lived in the town during its periods of growth and prosperity as well as decline and depression and current residents who have confidence and hope in its future Hot Springs, Arkansas Ray Hanley, Steven G.
