

Chapter 24: Factors affecting location

 igbusiness.blogspot.com/2011/05/chapter-24-factors-affecting-location.html

Location of industry

The location of a business is considered when it starts-up or when its present location is unsatisfactory. The business's objectives as well as the conditions of the environment change, so the business may need to look for a new location once in a while.

There are many factors that affect the location of businesses, and these factors are different for each business sector. We'll take a look at them below.

Factors affecting the location of a manufacturing business

Production methods and location decisions

- Small scale: transport and location of suppliers are less important.
- Large scale: transport and location of suppliers are more important.

Market

- Need to be near to transport perishable goods.
- Need to be near to cut transportation expenses.

Raw materials/components

- Need to be near to transport perishable goods.
- Need to be near to cut transportation expenses.

External economies of scale

- How good nearby businesses are.
 - For maintenance of equipments.
 - For training workers, etc...

Availability of labour

- Wages of the labourers.
- How skilled they are.

Government influence
