

Dr Hand

179

Lancaster July 11. 1776.

I am so much hurried that I can scarcely sit down for a moment. My journey being set off immediately for Trenton, under the late Revolution of Congress respecting the Militia. I go to morrow to Fort Mifflin, under the Appointment of an Commissioner for treating with the Indians on the 20th Instant. When I shall return, God only knows. — You may naturally suppose that Mr Yeates is much affixed by these arrangements. I have just wrote to Mr Hand proposing that Father & our Robert turn as soon as possible. A variety of considerations have pressed me to this step with which I flatter myself, you will acquiesce.

What shall the Committee do with your Fifes & Drummers? The Fife & Drum Majors will in all probability soon leave this Town with the Militia. They will then be at large without receiving any Instruction. Indeed I have no opinion of their learning much at any Time amongst us, unless under the superintendence of some Superior, who would minutely examine into their conduct.
