Loose Leaf for Living with Art Mark Getlein, 2019-01-07. Art is part of our lives from the monuments in our communities to the fashions we wear and the media images we take in to the exhibits on display in museums and galleries. It permeates our daily life. But why do we study art? How do we talk about Art? Living with Art helps students see art in everyday life by fostering a greater understanding and appreciation of art. Taking a step further, Getlein equips students with the tools necessary to analyze, digest, and uphold a life-long enthusiasm for art.

A Day in the Life of an American Worker Nancy Quam-Wickham, Ben Tyler Elliott, 2019-12-02. This introduction to the history of work in America illuminates the many important roles that men and women of all backgrounds have played in the formation of the United States. A Day in the Life of an American Worker 200 Trades and Professions through History allows readers to imagine the daily lives of ordinary workers from the beginnings of colonial America to the present. It presents the stories of millions of Americans from the enslaved field hands in antebellum America to the astronauts of the modern space age as they contributed to the formation of the modern and culturally diverse United States. Readers will learn about individual occupations and discover the untold histories of those women and men who too often have remained anonymous to historians but whose stories are just as important as those of leaders whose lives we study in our classrooms This book provides specific details to enable comprehensive understanding of the benefits and downsides of each trade and profession discussed Selected accompanying documents further bring history to life by offering vivid testimonies from people who actually worked in these occupations or interacted with those in that field Living with Art, 9th Ed Mark Getlein,2010 Imaginarium Claire Rosen,2017-01-17

Ideas About Art Kathleen K. Desmond,2011-05-06 Ideas About Art is an intelligent accessible introductory text for students interested in learning how to think about aesthetics It uses stories drawn from the experiences of individuals involved in the arts as a means of exposing readers to the philosophies theories and arguments that shape and drive visual art An accessible story driven introduction to aesthetic theory and philosophy Prompts readers to develop independent ideas about aesthetics this is a guide on how to think not what to think Includes discussions of non western contemporary and discipline specific theories Examines a range of art based dilemmas across a wide variety of disciplines from art and design and law to visual and museum studies AESTHETICS AND APPRECIATION OF TREE TRUNKS AND BRANCHES

INTO SKETCHES AND SCULPTURES Samuel Adentwi Bentum,2014-02 Aesthetics and Appreciation of Tree Trunks and Branches into Sketches and Sculptures introduces a way of seeing and experiencing art For centuries artists have relied on nature as their great source of inspiration Tree trunks and branches are comparable natural sculpturing materials that are worthy of adoration and adoption Nature in this sense directs the liberation of the images within these tree trunks and branches The concept upon which these aesthetics and appreciations were deduced was based on the philosophy of truth which presents the materials their sources and physical appearances as the basis of these sculptures Therefore the need to preserve and present the material was as crucial as the artistry The style of these collections centered on simplified realism that clinches on plain geometric shapes and forms Carving technique was at times interspersed with the tree bark texture surface defects and marks from chain saw and machete Titles of the sculptures were derived from the Akan Fante culture and offered their English versions Hence the dignity of the African culture is clearly and solidly established through the form and imagery created from these tree trunks and branches Governance and Leadership Institutions in Nigeria Ernest

Aniche,Toyin Falola,2020-11-29 This book examines how modern Nigerian political institutions have grappled with the resurgence of traditional institutions of political leadership in the post colonial era The contributors examine the role and nature of traditional governance institutions in West Africa from pre colonial times to the post colonial era Part I considers a range of traditional institutions including monarchies Islamic institutions and the role of culture and arts such as masking and music in traditional leadership Part II focuses on modern governance institutions elites political action arts and democracy in post colonial Nigeria Part III examines democratic institutions and processes in Nigeria s Fourth Republic covering issues such as electoral reforms women s political participation and democratic citizenship This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African politics governance and democratization Creating Spaces of Hope Caroline

Seymour-Jorn,2020-12-15 An exploration of how young artists imagine and maintain hope in post revolutionary Egypt Creating Spaces of Hope explores some of the newest most dynamic creativity emerging from young artists in Egypt and the way in which these artists engage contest and struggle with the social and political landscape of post revolutionary Egypt How have different types of artists studio artists graffiti artists musicians and writers responded personally and artistically to the various stages of political transformation in Egypt since the January 25 revolution What has the political or social role of art been in these periods of transition and uncertainty What are the aesthetic shifts and stylistic transformations present in the contemporary Egyptian art world Based on personal interviews with artists over many years of research in Cairo Caroline Seymour Jorn moves beyond current understandings of creative work primarily as a form of resistance or political commentary providing a more nuanced analysis of creative production in the Arab world She argues that in more recent years these young artists have turned their creative focus increasingly inward to examine issues having to do with personal relationships belonging and inclusion and maintaining hope in harsh social political and economic circumstances She shows how Egyptian artists are constructing spaces of hope that emerge as their art or writing becomes a conduit for broader discussion of social political personal and existential ideas thereby forging alternative perspectives on Egyptian society its place in the region and in the larger global context
