Logik Des Sinns:

Being Versus Word in Paul Tillich's Theology / Sein versus Wort in Paul Tillichs Theologie Gert Hummel, Doris Lax, 2011-07-11 Logik des Sinns Gilles Deleuze, 1993 Farewell to Visual Studies James Elkins, Gustav Frank, Sunil Manghani, 2015-10-28 Each of the five volumes in the Stone Art Theory Institutes series brings together a range of scholars who are not always directly familiar with one another's work. The outcome of each of these convergences is an extensive and unpredictable conversation on knotty and provocative issues about art. This fifth and final volume in the series focuses on the identity, nature and future of visual studies, discussing critical questions about its history, objects and methods. The contributors question the canon of literature of visual studies and the place of visual studies with relation to theories of vision, visuality, epistemology, politics and art history, giving voice to a variety of inter- and transdisciplinary perspectives. Rather than dismissing visual studies as its provocative title might suggest, this volume aims to engage a critical discussion of the state of visual studies today, how it might move forward and what it might leave behind to evolve in productive ways. The contributors are Emmanuel Alloa, Nell Andrew, Linda Bezub, Martin A. Berger, Hans Dam Christensen, Isabelle Decobecq, Bernhard J. Dotzler, Johanna Drucker, James Elkins, Michele Emmer, Yolaine Escande, Gustav Frank, Theodore Gracyk, Asbjørn Grønstad, Stephan Günzel, Charles W. Haxthausen, Miguel Hernández Navarro, Tom Holert, K. van Kesteren, Charlotte Klonk, Tirza True Latimer, Mark Linder, Sunil Manghani, Anna Notaro, Julia Orell, Mark Reinhardt, Vanessa R. Schwartz, Bernd Stiegler, Jyväskylä Sjoukje van der Meulen, Terri Weissman, Lisa Zaher and Marta Zarzycka. Meaning and Representation in History Jörn Rüsen, 2006-08-01 History has always been more than just the past. It involves a relationship between past and present, perceived on the one hand as a temporal chain of events and on the other symbolically as an interpretation that gives meaning to these events through varying cultural orientations, charging it with norms and values, hopes and fears. And it is memory that links the present to the past and therefore has to be seen as the most fundamental procedure of the human mind that constitutes history. Memory and historical thinking are the door of the human mind to experience. At the same time it transforms the past into a meaningful and sense-bearing part of the present and beyond. It is these complex interrelationships that are the focus of the contributors to this volume, among them such distinguished scholars as Paul Ricoeur, Johan Galtung, Eberhard Lammert and James E. Young. Full of profound insights into human society past and present, it is a book that not only historians but also philosophers and social scientists should engage with. Thinking Organization Stephen Linstead, Alison Linstead, 2013-01-11 Drawing on both analytical and continental traditions, this thought-provoking book takes a balanced look at the contributions philosophy can make to improving our understanding of what it means to organize. The essays consider three areas representing organization, knowing organization and the becoming of organization. With originality and flair, the contributors make a powerful case for the need for a new philosophy of management and organization. White Holes and the Visualization of the Body Žarko Paić, 2019-04-25 This book builds on the works of

Artaud and Deleuze setting forth a different way of thinking on the body through the use of a whole new set of conceptual tools Pai argues that the human body has become obsolete in relation to the development of cybernetics and artificial intelligence proposing that it can be understood neither as a bare thing nor a machine but instead as an event The concept of White Holes serves both as a metaphor and as a guide for understanding constellations such as the visualization of the body the corporeal turn fascination with the digital image and the technosphere Through visualization of the body we reach out to a space of singularity of thought that is not a description of reality but rather its aesthetic construction Leading a paradigm shift after the end of metaphysics in cybernetics Pai argues that phenomenology and psychoanalysis can no longer be credible theoretical orientations for deep insight into what happens when artificial life takes over what remains of the body's immanence

The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism

Capitalism in the Age of Catastrophe Achim Szepanski, 2024-05-31 This book analyses contemporary and future conditions of global finance and capitalism in an age of catastrophe It illuminates the links between various crises that have beset the world economy in recent decades and sets these in philosophical context drawing on the work of Marx Bataille and Baudrillard to forge new understandings of the impact of capitalist hegemony on society and nature The book introduces the concept of the over as a lens through which to reflect on capitalist excess and its negative consequences such as over accumulation of goods over pollution of the environment and over speculation of capital In particular it shines a light on the trends of financialization and stagflation with chapters examining increasingly embedded features of the world economy such as hyper inflation the dominance of advanced economy central banks the phenomenon of repurchase agreements new asset managers for the ultra wealthy and index funds to show how capitalist structures continue to drive inequality ecological breakdown and geopolitical precarity on a global scale With a rigorous philosophical and theoretical framework this book will appeal to
