Madness or Knowing the Unbearable Truth Tova Zaltz, 2018-11-01 The Impossible Choice offers readers a narrative of the relationship between a therapist and her patient who desperately wants to discover her past With no memory and no way of knowing what was real her long therapeutic journey was to last 26 years half her lifetime Her only reality was the life she lived in the presence of her therapist The narrative unfolds to reveal a story of horrific events that must be hidden yet can no longer be kept secret It sheds light on how chronic long term traumatised within a closed family circle can create madness in a vulnerable and lonely child and helps reader gain an understanding of the enigmatic phenomena of Dissociated Identity Disorder Having been terrorized into silence destroying her ability to use language in a house of secrets and lies the therapy reveals how this patient struggles to come out of her autistic like state in search of ways to find her past her self and her voice In this struggle the reader becomes an audience exposed to the birth of dissociative personae who come forth to tell her story As language slowly unfolds she begins to share a first hand account albeit in written form of the most complex psychological forces involved in a victim of incest who simultaneously loves hates and is terrorized by her lover father Through live vignettes it demonstrates how external violence can create inner violence that threatens to annihilate the soul leaving only a body to survive The book provides an original contribution to our understanding of the complex psychological forces involved in incest featuring the patient's own coherent written texts mediated by her therapist The former's remarkable insights represent essential reading for all readers involved in policy development for the protection of children at high risk of suffering abuse Edinburgh Companion to the First World War and the Arts Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2017-05-24 A new exploration of literary and artistic responses to WW1 from 1914 to the present This authoritative reference work examines literary and artistic responses to the wars upheavals across a wide range of media and genres from poetry to pamphlets sculpture to television documentary and requiems to war reporting Rather than looking at particular forms of artistic expression in isolation and focusing only on the war and inter war period the 26 essays collected in this volume approach artistic responses to the war from a wide variety of angles and where appropriate pursue their inquiry into the present day In 6 sections covering Literature the Visual Arts Music Periodicals and Journalism Film and Broadcasting and Publishing and Material Culture a wide range of original chapters from experts across literature and the arts examine what means and approaches were employed to respond to the shock of war as well as asking such key questions as how and why literary and artistic responses to the war have changed over time and how far later works of art are responses not only to the war itself but to earlier cultural production Key Features Offers new insights into the breadth and depth of artistic responses to WWI Establishes links and parallels across a wide range of different media and genres Emphasises the development of responses in different fields from 1914 to the present Literatures of War Eve Patten, Richard Pine, 2020-11-09 The most terrible disaster that one group of human beings can inflict on another is war Wars cause misery on an indescribable scale Yet we go on doing it to one another generation after generation Why Warfare is a recurrent and universal characteristic of human existence The mythologies of practically all peoples abound in wars and the superhuman deeds of warriors and pre literate communities apparently delighted in the recital of stories about battles Since our species became literate a mere 5 000 years ago written history has mostly been the history of wars Thousands who knew war evidently sickened of it and dreamt of lasting peace expressing their vision in literature and art in philosophy and religion They imagined Utopias freed of martial ambition and bloodshed which harked back to the Golden Age of classical antiquity to the Christian vision of a paradise lost and to the Arcadia of Greek and Latin poetry so richly celebrated in the canvases of Claude and Poussin All these things bear eloquent testimony to the human longing for peace but they have not triumphed over our dreadfully powerful propensity to war from the Introduction by Anthony Stevens In this multi disciplinary collection of essays on the manifestations of war in poetry fiction drama music and documentaries scholars and practitioners from an international context describe the transformation of the war experience into chronicles of hope and despair from Herodotus up to the present day Reimagining the War Memorial, Reinterpreting the Great War Marzena Sokołowska-Paryż, 2012-03-15 Reimagining the War Memorial

Reinterpreting the Great War The Formats of British Commemorative Fiction is an in depth analysis of the role of British war memorials in literature and film in the wider context of the commemorative trend in contemporary culture The Sheffield City Battalion Memorial the Menin Gate Memorial the Thiepval Memorial to the Missing of the Somme the Royal Artillery Memorial and the Shot at Dawn Memorial are the focus of the discussion which aims to show how the meanings assigned to specific war memorials create ideologically diverse interpretations of the British experience of the Great War ranging from the futility myth to the imperial sublime The epistemological ambivalence of the war memorial lies at the heart of the analysis of the selected novels films and plays for the condemnation of a military conflict as a historical evil does not necessarily exclude the possibility of honouring the men who fought in it

From a Dark Horizon Luke McCallin,2021-12-07 In the waning days of World War I a horrific crime behind the lines sends Lieutenant Gregor Reinhardt on a search for a killer in this electrifying thriller from the author of The Man from Berlin It s the final days of the Great War and four years of grinding conflict has warped more than one man s mind When a secret meeting of top brass is called someone sets off a bomb that kills all the attendees It looks for sure that one of the men in Gregor Reinhardt s company is the culprit But since that man killed himself the General is looking for someone else to share the blame Reinhardt must prove his trooper innocent if he hopes to avoid the fate of a co conspirator The search for answers leads Reinhardt deep into a potential conspiracy populated by mutinous soldiers a mysterious Russian nobleman and a pair of doctors who may be doing more than treating battlefield injuries The trenches are home to any number of horrors but what if the greatest danger is right next to you

Mr. Gatling's Terrible Marvel Julia Keller,2008 Documents the life of the inventor of the Gatling gun the first machine gun and the impact of his invention on the expansion of the United States as a superpower and the international boom of the arms industry

The Fiction of Pat Barker Merritt Moseley,2014-05-28 Pat Barker is one of the most important authors of her time Her fiction has won many awards including the Booker Prize for The Ghost Road the last novel in her celebrated Regeneration trilogy and has attracted much critical attention This stimulating Guide examines the key critical responses to the full range of Barker s fiction from newspaper reviews and journal articles to revealing interviews and book length scholarship Merritt Moseley also explores the central themes which run through Barker s novels and the criticism such as the issues of gender class social realism violence and trauma Tracing the development of Barker s fiction through the surrounding critical works this is an indispensable volume for anyone with an interest in one of Britain s most popular and widely studied contemporary writers
