Smith,2021-09-30 The teaching of Historical European Martial Arts has widespread appeal with numerous clubs in many countries However comparatively few people who run their own club have qualifications that would make them an instructor in traditional martial arts organizations Even those with such qualifications lack in depth cohesive resources for teaching a given style often because they can only work from incomplete sources Thus the need for a book which is grounded in exhaustive research into historical teaching methods and in particular focusing on the specific style of Sigmund Ringeck who was himself a teacher of fighting arts in the late 14th century or the early or mid 15th century In The Art of Longsword Fighting Benjamin J Smith therefore offers the broader information necessary for teachers of historical swordsmanship to deliver courses based on original authentic techniques This includes the various cutting methods the role of competition in learning these arts the mechanics of the interpretive process and insights into how to use a wide range of activities to enhance students experience All of this is achieved through a panoply of photographs showing each move along with explanatory diagrams as well as detailing how and when to introduce each next step in a manner that is faithful to Ringeck's style. There is no current literature available which demonstrates how each move should be undertaken and most importantly why each step should be taken in the sequences described. There is no doubt that a book of this nature has been long awaited and will be welcomed by instructors and students alike as well as those general readers interested in fencing and the longsword of the Renaissance period.

Muye Dobo Tongji Chǒngjo ((Roi de Corée); Tongmu Yi, Che-ga Pak, 2000 In 1789 King Chongjo, ruler of the Yi dynasty, ordered General Yi Duk-moo to compile an official textbook on all martial art forms then present in Korea to preserve them for future generations. The result, the Muye Dobo Tongji, is the only surviving classical text on the Korean arts of war. Based on the earliest known Korean martial arts treatise, the Muye Chebo written in 1599, the Muye Dobo Tongji clearly shows the influence of the neighbouring Japanese and Chinese armies. Through hundreds of wars and invasions, Korean soldiers adapted battlefield skills and tactics from their enemies, creating a unique system of their own. Organised into 24 distinct disciplines, comprised of empty hand fighting, weaponry, and horsemanship, this book is an accurate historical snapshot of the warrior arts of the hermit kingdom in the late 18th century.
